THE BEST REMEDY

Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

CHERRY

CHERRY PRCTOBAL is such a remedy, and no derroseminently merits the confidence of the public. It is a scientific combination of the medicinal principles and remedy united of the medicinal principles and remedy united of such power as to insure the greatest possible efficiency and uniform ity of results. It strikes at the foundation of all pulmonary diseases, affording prount relief and rapid cures, and is adapted to patients of any age or either sex. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it readily. In ordinary Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Broachitis, Influenza, Clergyman's Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, and Catarrh, the effects of Aver's Cherry Proceedings of the protection it affords in sudden attacks. In Whooping -cough and Consumption there is no other remedy so efficacious, soothing, and helpful.

Low prices are inducements to try some of the many mixtures, or syrups, made of chear, and inferedite ingredients, now offered.

Low prices are inducements to try some of the many mixtures, or syrups, made of chear and ineffective ingredients, now offered, which, as they contain no curative qualities, can afford only temporary relief, and are sure to deceive and disappoint the patient. Diseases of the throat and lungs demand active and effective treatment; and it is dangerous experimenting with unknown and cheap medicines, from the great liability that these diseases may, while so trifled with become deeply seated or incurable. Use AVER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and you may confidently expect the best results. It is a standard medical preparation, of known and acknowledged curative power, and is as cheap as its careful preparation and finingredients will allow. Eminentphysicians knowing its composition, prescribe if in their practice. The test of half a century has knowing its composition, prescribe if in their practice. The test of half a central has proven its absolute certainty to cure all pul-monary complaints not already beyond the reach of human aid.
