MEETING OF DISTRICT DIVISION

Large and Representative Meeting Held at Douglas-town-Friday Evening.

The nineteenth quarterly session of the Kent Northumberland District Division was held at Douglas town on the afternoon of Friday July 15th. The following officers and delegates were present: Rev. R. H. Stavert, D. W. P., Harcourt, H. M. Ferguson, D. R. S., Repton, Mrs. H. Ingram, Miss Helen McLeod and Clarence Jones Newcastle; Mrs. Wm. Anderson and Miss Rae Loggie, Burnt Church; R. H. Jessamin, Sterling Wood; Richard Atchinson, Geo. Cassie, Miss Jennie Bransfield, Douglas town.

Besides the officers and delegates there were a number of visitors present. These were as follows: Miss Jennie Goodwin, Shag Harbor N. S.; Miss Nettie E. Stavert, Wilmot Valley P. E. I.; Rev. F. C. Simpson, Miss R. Hutchinson, Miss Janie Jessamin, Miss Alice Hutchinson, Miss Annie Bransfield, Mr. Chas. Johnson, Douglas town. A number of the officers being absent: Rev. R. H. Stavert appointed the following officers pro tem.

Sterling Wood D. W. P. Geo. Cassie D. Cond. H. M. Ferguson D. Scribe. Mrs. Wm. Anderson D. chap. Chas. Johnson D. O. S. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The following committees were then appointed.

Credentialed Committee, Mrs. H. Ingram, Mrs. Wm. Anderson and Sterling Wood. Committee on the good of the order R. H. Jessamin, Miss Helen McLeod and Richard Atkinson. Programme Committee Clarence Jones, Mrs. H. Ingram and Mrs. Wm. Anderson. The several reports were then given. The D. W. P. spoke at some length of the onward march of the temperance cause in general and of the good work that is being done by the various divisions within the counties of Kent and Northumberland in particular.

In the absence of the D. Scribe H. H. Stuart, the report on the standing of the divisions within the district was given by the committee appointed on the good of the order. The report was quite encouraging.

The Treasurer's report which was given by the D. W. P. in the absence of the treasurer, showed a snug balance on hand.

After the various reports had been given problems of various kinds arising out of the working of the order were taken upon and discussed. Reports of the work being done were then given from a number of the delegates from the several divisions represented. A motion was then carried to the effect that this District Division come upon the grand Division the necessity of putting an organizer in the field at the earliest possible date and in order to help secure such an organizer that the grand Division be asked to advertise at once through the press calling for a suitable man. It was then moved by the D. W. P. and seconded by R. H. Jessamin that this District Division now in session tender to the Division in Campbellton an expression of their sympathy with their brethren in the heavy loss sustained in the recent fire and that all the divisions within the district be asked to contribute as large an amount as possible to the order in Campbellton for the purpose of helping them to build their hall.

Lieut. Chas. Anslow Killed in Auto Accident Received Fatal Injuries Tuesday Afternoon While Engaged in Relief Work at Stricken Town.

MILITARY FUNERAL THURSDAY

Deep gloom and sorrow was again cast over the stricken town of Campbellton when Chas. W. Anslow junior, member of the firm of Anslow Bros., publishers of the Graphic was fatally injured in an automobile accident near the relief station at the school grounds.

Tuesday afternoon about 4 o'clock Mr. Anslow who has been working night and day in caring for the fire sufferers desired to go to the tented town for some articles required. Mr. Shives with his auto in which were Willie Mott, Ollie Mowatt and Ross Malcolm was standing in Andrew street. On Mr. Shive's invitation Mr. Anslow jumped in and was run up the hill to the tent. Jumping out he did his errand and returned to the car.

Andrew street at this point is narrow, the roadway being crowned and Mr. Shives had been accustomed to run his car backwards to the first cross street. He started back and his car shot down the decline at a rapid rate. When just at the relief station at the school grounds where the deceased had been so active in the work of attending to the afflicted, and before the eyes of his companions who were at their work, the auto skidded, running into the ditch and overturned. Mr. Anslow was thrown against the stub of an electric light pole and received terrible injuries on the forehead and head. When picked up he was unconscious and remained so to the end, which was at 1.40 Wednesday morning.

The injured man was rushed to the emergency hospital under charge of the Sisters of Hotel Dieu, and there Drs. Murray, Martin and Pinault, with the Sisters did everything possible for him, but without avail. The others in the auto escaped with slight injuries only. Mr. Shives is beside himself with grief. H. B. Anslow of the Graphic was at Teymouth York Co., at the time of the accident, and although every effort was made to get a message through to him it was not until his arrival at Chatham Junction that he received the first news of the accident, and at Newcastle was informed of the seriousness of the injuries. At Newcastle he was joined by his father-in-law, Mr. Wm. Corbett sr., and proceeded to Campbellton, but all was over before their arrival.

Wednesday morning at nine o'clock funeral service was held at the hospital. Here had congregated Campbellton citizens of all ranks with whom the deceased was a general favorite. Rev. Mr. Drummond and Rev. Mr. Schurman conducted the short and impressive service, and there was not a dry eye among the large concourse of men there assembled. The clergyman spoke of the upright and honorable life of the departed, of his good work in caring for the stricken people of Campbellton, forgetting his own loss in the nobler work of ministering to his fellow men. The body was carried to the depot in the hose wagon of the Campbellton Fire Department, of which deceased was a member, followed by many citizens on foot and in carriages. Upon arrival of the Limited the body was sent to Newcastle being accompanied by Messrs. H.

B. Anslow and Wm. Corbett, sr., and J. R. MacKenzie as a representative of the Masons. The Masons had full charge of all the funeral arrangements.

Corbett, Major T. W. Lawlor was in command, with Capt. T. H. Whalen and Lieutenant Randolph Crocker, Captain W. H. Belyka and Lieutenants C. Mersereau and A. McKenzie formed the representation.

The First Contingent of which C. W. Anslow was a member. C. W. Anslow is on the extreme right.

NEWCASTLE LEADER

It is safe to say that not at any time in the history of this town has the community been so much affected and so stirred up over the death of a former fellow citizen as has been over the death of Charlie Anslow, under the somewhat tragic circumstances through which he came to his untimely end. All classes of citizens paid their respects to the deceased both here and in Campbellton. The funeral from the hospital in Campbellton to the train was a lengthy one and men wept over the sad death.

A fitting tribute of respect to the late Lieut. Mr. C. W. Anslow was paid Thursday afternoon when the remains were interred with full Masonic and military honors. The funeral itself was one of the largest seen in Newcastle in many years and was distinctly impressive. The great length of the cortege testified to the worth of the late Mr. Anslow. Besides the militia, firemen and societies on march, hundreds of citizens paid the last and truest tribute of respect to Mr. Anslow. Rev. W. J. Bear, pastor of the Methodist church, conducted the service at the home where the remains were deposited. The service was limited on Wednesday. The prayer was not impressive. After prayer, the singing of hymns brought the house service to a conclusion. Meanwhile preparations were being made for the funeral. The Newcastle firemen assembled in uniform at the town hall, while the Masonic lodges gathered at their rooms. The 12th Newcastle Field Battery, in which the deceased took a prominent part and had the commission of lieutenant, assembled at the armory and marched to the home of Mr.

from the 73rd, regt, at Chatham. Col Maltby was conductor of the funeral and the procession was soon formed. The order of March was as follows: 12th Field Battery, Newcastle Concert Band, Newcastle Firemen, A. F. & A. M. Lodges. Pall bearers—Major Lawlor, Capt. T. H. Whalen, Lieut. Randolph Crocker, of the 12th C. F. A.; Capt. W. H. Belyka, Lieut. C. Mersereau and Lieut. McKenzie of the 74th Battalion. Gun with remains covered with the flag, helmet and sword. Horse Mourners—H. B. Anslow, Arthur Anslow, Wm. Corbett, sr., and Wm. Corbett, jr.

The coffin was placed on the heavy six horses which were hauled by the firemen. The horse of the late lieutenant followed the carriage. The whole service and funeral were deeply impressive. In addition to those in the cortege, hundreds lined the route of march. The cortege proceeded along King's Highway to Thomas Street, down Thomas to Pleasant to Henry Street, thence to St. James' cemetery, where interment was made. The Masonic burial ceremony was carried out at the grave. The members of the order assembled and after the casket had been lowered to the grave, Robert Murray, Esq., W. F. P., of Chatham opened the service. Rev. F. C. Simpson of Douglas town followed and recited the prayer, the members of the order Mr. Murray placed the Masonic emblem in the grave and the other portions of the service were executed. On the conclusion of the Masonic service the firing party under command of Major T. W. Lawlor fired the salute near the grave. The participating salutes consisted of three

TRAGIC DEATH OF HOWARD DELANO

Struck with terrible force on the brain, by a peavey, which rebounded from the machinery, Howard Delano sustained such injuries in Sinclair's mill on Wednesday morning that death resulted a few hours later. The accident which was the worst in the county for many years has cast a gloom over the community. The man was terribly bruised, the forehead being badly fractured. An Indian named Noel Barnaby also received injuries in the accident, but his condition is not serious. Mr. Delano was a valued employee of the Edward Sinclair Lumber Company and was well and favorably known.

The unfortunate man had been working as usual on Wednesday morning at the slasher. The machinery in some way became entangled and in his endeavors to straighten out matters, he used the peavey. Hardly had the hook entered the slasher when it flew back with great force. It struck Delano across the forehead, knocking him to the ground unconscious. The peavey also struck the Indian a heavy blow, but his injuries were not serious. Delano was picked up and carried to his home nearby. Medical aid was summoned from Newcastle and Drs. Pedolin and Desmond responded with great haste. They found the injured man in a very low condition but worked vigorously to revive him. The accident took place about 7.45 o'clock and when the physicians left on their return home, they entertained but little hope that he would survive. Dr. Pedolin went to the Bridge a second time and found Delano in a much worse condition. The injured man lingered until 1 o'clock when he breathed his last.

Delano's injuries were a fracture of the frontal bone with depression. The deceased was married and kept the cookhouse at Sinclair's mill. The accident marks the first fatality at Sinclair's mill and the sad affair is greatly to be regretted.

The sincere sympathy of the community will be extended to the bereaved family in the tragic death of Mr. Delano. The deceased is survived by his wife (formerly of Fredericton) two daughters, Nettie and Dorothy and one son Earl and his parents and seven brothers. The funeral took place on Friday at the interment being made in the Derby cemetery. Over 100 persons followed the remains to the grave. The pallbearers were: Russell, Ernest Russell, John Curtis, John Creamer, Geo. Henderson, and Dennis McLean. Some very pretty floral tributes were sent by Mrs. Grenley, Mrs. W. Morral, Miss Jardine, Miss McIntosh, Mrs. Hubert Sinclair, Mrs. James Shultz.
