THE GEVERAL ELECTION.—The preparations for the election of the new Parliament are going on awimmingly, and the interest of the coatest of course increases as the time for it draws nearer. The constituents have now need to have little else to do but to read and ponder the addresses and speeches of the great council of the nation. The large proportion of existing M. P.'s being anxious for re-election, and their presence being, therefore, required in the country, the House of Commons has dwindled to a mere shadow, and is now kept in existance only for the transaction of shabolately necessary business and till the Lords have got through their part of the work. Lord Palmerston and his colleagues are wishful, it is said, to close the doors at once and to get the elections over as speedily as may be; while Lord Derby and his party, who hope to defeat and succeed the present Minister, are under stood to be endeavoring, by placing obstruit tions in the way of certain bills in the Upper House, to delay the contest till they are rather better prepared for it. It was stated in the house of Commons on Fuesday that Parliament is to be dissolved on the 6th of July. Actual candidates may well desire to accelerate operations, seeing that not a few of them are "spending in placards and public-houses about 2500 a day, and have the prospect of continuing to spend that amount every day till the poling takes place." The business of the session in the House of Commons being virtually over, and as many of the members of the Covernment must be away amongst their constituents, the custom, ary Ministerial dunner at Greenwich is not to take place they great the constituents, the custom, ary Ministerial dunner at Greenwich is not to take place that of the contest till they are rather better prepared for it. It was stated in the house of Commons of the members of the Covernment must be away amongst their constituents, the custom, and their contest of the contest till they are rathe

STRAWBERRY CHALLENGE.—The Londo STRAWBERRY CHALLENGE.—The London Advertiser acknowledges a few strawberries from Mr. J. Wycloff, 34 inches in circumierance, and challanges any one to beat it. The Ingersoil Chronicle received a tew from Elisha Hall, Eaq. 34 inches. The Norfolk Reformer also had a present from Mr. Dunoan McIntosh of Woodhouse, of the delicious fruit, 4 inches. We received, on Saturday, "a few" from Mr. J. H. Lawrence, Collingwood, some measuring 54 inches, 5, and 44. At the late Horti cultural Exhibition at Cobourg, Mr. Kingsley Calcutt showed a collection of strawberries, one of which on being measured was found to be six inches and three-quarters in circumference, and its weight an ounce and a quarter. London, Ingersoil, Woodhouse, and Collinwood, have made their boast in the strawberry line—let us hear who can best Cobourg Mr. Calcutt's strawberries are as good as they are large.—[Cobourg World.]

1 In Ford's Theatre, curiosity seekers have completely whittled away the bench upon which "Pennut John" sat whits holding Booth's horse, and about a yard square has been cut away from the green-baize carpet. surrounding the spot where Booth's feet struck when he jumped upon the stage, after shooting the President. One of these curious visitors entered the saloon adjoining the theatre where Booth took his last drink of brandy just before he murdered Mr Lincoln. The visitor inquired of the bar-keeper: "Have you the same bottle on hand out of which Booth drank on the night of the assassination?" "Yes, sir." "And the same brandy in it?" "Yes, sir." "Can I have a drink of that same brandy out of that same buttle?" "Yes sir." "The visitor tastes the brandy, makes a wry face, and considered the same of the same stand on the same brandy, makes a wry face, and considered the same brandy, makes a wry face, and contastes the brandy, makes a wry face, and con-tinues: "And that's the same brandy that Booth drank?" Yes sir." "Well, I don't wonder that he killed the President. A drink of that brandy would make a man kill his grandmother."

orthy's Hotel and stables, in were burned to the ground, early sy morning. The inmates narrowly with their lives; only a small por-te furniture was saved. Insurance too of the furniture was saved. Insurance $1,600 in the Liverpool and London. The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary. An attempt was made to fire the stable three weeks ago.

In a trial now in progress in one of the Coarts of Sweden, a series of the most appalling crimes has been brought to light. A elergyman named Lindback is charged with the murder of several of his parishioners by administering to them poison in their sacramental wine? The proof is so conclusive against him, that not the slightest deubt of his guilt his entertained.

DATARDLY OUTRAGE.—On Wednesday morning, says the Hamilton Times, as the Urange representation from Dundas were proceeding down the Desjardin's Canal, on board the steamer Argyle, while passing under the Suspension Bridge were assailed with a shower of boulders from a party who had taken position upon that structure.—Those on board the steamer returned the salute with a number of pistol shots, but without effect. Fortunately no one on board the steamer was injured, but several narrowly escaped being struck by missiles that could hardly have failed to inflict fatal injuries.

A mad dog created a tremendious excite-

A mad dog created a tremendous excitement the other day in Chicago. He rushed into a bank endeavored to get behind the excitement of the clerks and rushed to the spot. As soon, however, as the cry of "mad dog" was heard there was a general scattering, and every available place of retreat was called into requisition. The dog continued to set is the most infuriated mannor until a policeman dispatched him with six pistol shots.

At a sale which occurred in a small town of the south of France lately, a copy of the "Lettres Juives" was sold for less than eighteenpence, and was found to contain fifty-two inedited letters of Voltaire, Diderot, D'Alembert and their contemporaries. An amateur of Bayonne heard of the discovery, and gave two thousand francs for this pro-mising let of autographs. BALL'S OHIO Reaper & Mower JOHN PASSMORE,
