THE PENIAN FIZZLE.

The developments of the past week are such as to convince us that if the duped servants girls who raised the money to send the "Boys in Green" against Canada had come on themselves, they could not possibly have made a worse job of it. From the hillside to the sea, the money was raised by the Penians one might reasonably expect a battle almost as sanguinary as that of Waterloo. Instead of this, however, we have seen a rabble that added nothing to the line almost at the first shot, commanded by generals who either gave themselves up to the United States or to the British, or were killed. It is not the mere fact of being taken by surprise, but the fact of being taken by surprise in such a manner, that we are so angry. We are angry, not so much at the British, but at the Penians, who, by their own fault, have placed themselves in a position to be taken by surprise. We are angry, not so much at the British, but at the Penians, who, by their own fault, have placed themselves in a position to be taken by surprise.

THE EXPOSITOR ON M. C. CAMERON.

It has long been remarked that persons deficient in both logic and common sense are able, on account of their very want of capacity, to utter convincing platitudes in a pleasantly ornate and melodious way, as if the mantle of prophetic utterance had fallen upon their shoulders and the people were to be drawn into any and every course, however absurd, by the mere sound of their voice. We are sure that this is the case with M. C. Cameron. The Editor of the Expositor is an excellent example of this kind of person. He has, however, made a grave error in choosing his arena. The inhabitants of Huron are not ignorant enough to mistake aspersions for argument and blunders for superior intelligence. In his address to the Expositor, "The Star" is the subject of the article. It is not the "Star" that we are to be taken by surprise, but the "Star" that we are to be taken by surprise.

ON THE WAY TO THE SAULT.

ON BOARD THE PRINCE ALFRED (From the Special Correspondent of the Signal.)
Collingwood, Wednesday, 25th May, Noon.
THE PRINCE ALFRED.
At 5 o'clock on the morning of the Queen's birthday a gun was fired and the Prince Alfred, with the Star and John Godefrick, steamed slowly out of Godrich, heartily cheered by the friendly spectators who had assembled at that early hour to bid us "God Speed" on our voyage. The trip was a very fair one, although the weather was not so good as we had anticipated. The wind was light and the sea was calm. We reached the Sault at 12 o'clock.

PIGEON HILL.

FURTHER PARTICULARS OF THE FIGHT AND RETREAT.
From the Telegraph.
ACCOUNT OF THE FIGHT.
The following account of the fight is gathered from both Canadian and Penian sources. On Tuesday morning, information was received by the Penian road coach of the neighborhood, and an independent company of St. Alban, consisting of farmers and citizens, organized at their own expense, 40 in number, under Captain Thomas Sheppard, and proceeded to the front of the hillside, about 500 yards on the Canadian side of the line, about half way on the road between Cook's Ferry and St. Alban, and between the Penian and Canadian lines.

PARTICULARS FROM THE FRONT.

Huron, May 27.
I have just returned from the front, having spent the afternoon collecting information on the Penian side. The Penian camp was located by all but some 200 men, most of whom were packing and sailing up their boxes of stores; the rest were lounging about very indifferently, and watching the Penian soldiers marching in the distance. The Penian soldiers were to be seen at all times, and they were to be seen at all times, and they were to be seen at all times, and they were to be seen at all times.

MYSTIFIED.

It is a great mistake when the understanding of a paper or an individual is so darkened that a clear statement is incomprehensible. We are very glad to find that the Star is continually to be found in this pitiful condition. Our town contemporary so implicitly and unquestioningly follows the leading strings manufactured for it, that it is astonished to learn that we are not, on any occasion, to dispute the dictum of the Globe. While we are sure to find in the Globe every article that we are to find in the Star, we are sure to find in the Star every article that we are to find in the Globe.
