A meeting of the Goderich curling club was held on Monday evening last.
There was a good attendance and various

The financial statement showed the club to be in good standing.

It does not savor of egotism to arise and remark that no other town in Ontario can boast of so much feminine grace and beauty as can Goderich. This truth was fully demonstrated at the High School entertainment on Friday evening last.

Up to the present we have heard no particularly loyalist raise an outcry for a big jubilee celebration at Goderich. Our townfolk are evidently bound to say their enthusiasm for the big Caledonian celebration on the 1st of July.

SHARP THUNDER-CLAP.—About four o'clock Friday afternoon a thunderstorm passed over Goderich. One clap was particularly sharp and appeared to have struck in the vicinity of the public school. No damage has been reported, however.

A. M. Polley, returned from Pennsylv-

ASSEMBLY.—An assembly, under the auspices of the Goderich cricket club will be held in the roller rink, Friday A. M. 22. The getting up of the affair is in the hands of an energetic committee, and we are led to believe that the assembly will surpass all its predecessors.

The early days of the week just closed were quite chilly, owing to the quantity of ice in the lake, which had been driven in shore by the recent westerly winds.
Latterly, however, the ice has been driven out and broken up, and the temperature has become decidedly milder.

The warden's committee of the county council met on Monday, to make arrangements for replacing the bridge in Wawanosh, carried away by the recent

We regret to learn that Mrs. Troy Savage, of Buffalo, is seriously ill with panied by Mr. Savage and the children.

day for Owen Sound, where she will spend two weeks as guest of Rev. T. A. Campbell, formerly pastor of North street church, Goderich. Mr. Achenson, we are pleased to state, has now fully recovered from the severe lung trouble which prostrated him some months ago.

From the Star, published in Waco, Texas, we observe that Percival Watson, an old resident of Goderich, who, in this connection, is attending dining service at St. George's church next Sunday morning, when the anniversary sermon will be preached by Rev.
Mr. Kerr of Mitchell. The members will meet in the lodge room at 10:15, and march from thence to the church.

will meet in the lodge room at 10:15,
and march from thence to the church.

About four weeks ago the old grey horses, which did such faithful service for Ed. Hopner in the dry business, gave up the ghost—in some unaccountable manner it was seized of lockjaw and succumbed. Friday last the dryman purchased an animal to replace the dead "grey," and he is now on the road again, and into business as heartily as ever.

The book and stationery business carried on for the past five years by James Imrie, has been purchased by G.
W. Berry, and will be carried on henceforth by that gentleman. Mr. Berry has long been in business, and as he has had experience in the stationery trade, will no doubt make it a success. This week he advertises big drives in wall papers.

The thanks of the high school literary society are tendered to the following gentlemen, who have been so kind as to arrange of the recent entertainment: Mrs. Jordan, Mrs. R. R. Crane, Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. Garrow, Mrs. Crane, Miss Hamilton, Miss Hutchison and Miss Hattie Smith. Also to those at present not attending the school who assisted in the production of the play.

We have received from the publishers, Imrie & Graham, Toronto, "Only a Laboring Man," a new piece of music, the words and music of which are composed by James Fax, the well-known vocalist. The song treats a good sentiment, and, as the words are adapted to spirited air, we have no doubt the author and publishers will be able to find a ready sale for it.

GOOD HORSE FLESH.—Jonathan Miller, of Ben Miller, and J. C. Martin, of Goderich, have purchased from Thos.
Lapsley, of Seaford, the celebrated English blood horse, "Ben Miller," a "Clear Grit" and "Hambletonian" strain. The horse has been placed under the care of Hall Rutledge, of Goderich township, and will no doubt prove to be a valuable acquisition to the breeders of the section.

The annual meeting of the Goderich Mechanics' Institute and Library Association will be held in the reading room, on Monday evening, May 24, 1887, commencing at 8 o'clock, for the annual report, election of officers, and any other business. All members who have not already procured tickets for this purpose are requested to attend the meeting. B. Hamilton, librarian, will be happy to supply any one with a ticket.

A meeting of the lawn tennis club was held Tuesday afternoon in the Canadian Bank building. There was a good attendance and the members of the club (including a large number of ladies) were very enthusiastic, and are determined to get to work as soon as the state of the ground will permit.

The following officers were appointed: President, R. B. Chubb; vice-president, Alex. Strachan; sec. treas.; R. S. Williams, who with three ladies compose the committee of management.

Action, has been brought by Thos.
Stephens, hotel keeper, Seaford, against Andrew Gorenlock, J. P., and James Wanless, of Varna, police magistrates, Seaford, who are charged with the fact that they acted as justices of the peace in and for the county of Huron on Scott Act cases without having the legal qualification. The plaintiffs claim is for $100, one half of which, in the event of conviction, goes to the prosecutor and the other to the Provincial Treasurer.

Fire.—A fire broke out shortly before 4 o'clock Tuesday morning in a small house on MacDonald street occupied by Mrs. Squier. The engine was quickly on the scene, but despite every effort on the part of the brigade the building was completely destroyed, and a large portion of the contents was lost.
The house was insured for $200 in the contents for $300 in the Queen's Insurance Company of Montreal. The building was formerly owned by A. C.
Macdonald, of Dunlop, but was recently purchased by Mrs. Squier.

No SIGHT INTERFERED.—Some people fancy they are enlightened if they don't see everything they would like to see. This SIGNAL. Well, we are also in a red hot chase after news, but it is impossible to get it all. How in the world do they expect us to find out everything? We want some personal or if you know a good local item, just hail us on the street, or call at the office and we will be all right. It would be a very sorry newspaper man who would refuse without being told.

David Pike, hostler, of Zurich, who attempted to commit suicide in this village on April 24, by cutting his throat, was brought to jail Saturday last charged with the offence. For some unaccountable reason the gash in the throat had not healed, and on that account presented a sickening appearance. The wound was again dressed and sewed up by the jail medical authorities, and the patient is now doing well as could be expected. He is sustained solely by fluid food, the working of the jaws necessary by the mastication of solids, being found to aggravate the wound.

FROM LODGE 27, A. O. U. W.—At a meeting of Maple Leaf Lodge, No. 27, A.
O. U. W., held Monday evening April 15th the following resolutions were adopted: Resolved, That we, the members of Lodge 27, A. O. U. W., do hereby renewed by Bro. A. Morton, and resolved, that we express our respect and esteem for our retiring Mr. W. R. Johnson, and regret his departure from our town and lodge, as we were beginning more fully to appreciate his worth. And we pray that the gracious favor of our Divine Master may abide with him and his family in their future home. Bro. Johnston replied in very suitable terms.

THE MAJOR'S FAREWELL.—Tuesday evening last there was a large turnout at the Salvation Army barracks to witness the departure of Major Glover, who for nearly two years has had charge of this division of the work, with headquarters at Palmerston. The barracks was crowded to the doors, and a very interesting time was spent. Addresses were made by Major Glover, Capt.
Cotton, Capt. C. W. Irwin, Blyth, Capt. Ballantyne, Captain Zimmerman and Cadet Wright, Goderich, and a number of the soldiers. Major Glover leaves to take charge of the Barrie division. Wednesday evening he farewelled at Clinton.

GODERICH ABROAD.—Notwithstanding the fact that Goderich is looked upon by many as the Ontario home of art, it last week fell to the lot of a Goderich man, R. R. Ballows, photographer, to go to the Queen city and take 600 views there in connection with the Home of the Redemptorist Fathers. Two years ago the Redemptorist Fathers, Rev. Frs.
Messrs. Miller and Kants were engaged in mission work in Goderich, and while here sat for photographs to Mr. Ballows.
So well pleased were they with the result that they have sent repeated orders to him since, and last week's engagement was another proof of the appreciation of the services of the Goderich knights of the camera.

Hon. Peter Cooper, the philanthropist, once said: "In all towns where a newspaper is published every man should advertise in it, even if it is nothing more than a card stating the business he is engaged in. It not only pays the advertiser but it lets people at a distance know that the town you live in is a prosperous community of business men.
As the seed is sown, so the fruits reaped. Never pull down your sign while you expect to do business, for it often indicates that business is poor and you are losing your grip on the com-mercially speaking. The judicious advertiser will receive in return ten dollars for every one invested in the columns of a live newspaper."

THE KELLY-WATSON CONCERT.—There was a fair turnout at the Kelly-Watson concert and readings Wednesday evening last. The audience was large, and the program was well received. The Kelly family, who are a favorite in Goderich, kept up to his old standard in his vocal and guitar solos, and was repeatedly encoured. Mrs. Watson was particularly good in the singing of "The Rose Tree" and "The Swan Song." The program was well received, and the audience was large.

peatedly encouraged. Mrs. Watson was ence was large.

WEDNESDAY LAST B. B. Osler, of Toronto, made $100 in short terms. He was engaged as counsel for the plaintiffs in the matter of Coles v. Coleman, and opened the case with a 15-minute speech to the jury. He not only succeeded in convincing the jury that his clients were right, but he also managed to get the verdict in his favor. The jury, who were people, but he actually brought compensation to the heart of the defendant. When the court adjourned for dinner, Coleman sought a settlement, and one was made satisfactory to the plaintiffs, which declined the exchange of defendant to the extent of nearly $1,000. $100 of which went to fee the clever lawyer who had broken down the barricades in his opening address to the jury.

NO MORE DEADHEADS.—At a recent meeting of the Dominion Live Stock Association, held in Montreal, it was resolved that as the Grand Trunk and
