

In the Prize Ring.

FLEMING WILL MEET KILBANE.

Toronto, May 19.—Frankie Fleming's decision to box Johnny Kilbane for the world's featherweight crown here at the Grand Army carnival has proved welcome to the promoters and public alike. Of all those who aspire to win the title held during the past years by Kilbane none has a greater claim for recognition than the Canadian champion. Fleming has been waiting for a long time to get the title in the ring, and it behooves him to make the best of this golden opportunity.

When Benny Leonard's quest of the lightweight championship nearly came to an abrupt end several years ago in New York when he was included into a match with the Canadian, Fleming not only gave him a decisive beating, but also succeeded in knocking him out, a feat which no other boxer has since accomplished. Fleming has shown that when occasion demands it he can hit, and hit hard.

The directors of the Grand Army carnival, realizing that Fleming was almost as much of an attraction as a boxer, refused to take "no" for an answer, and after much negotiation secured his signature to the articles. He will get $4,000 for his win, loss or draw.

The match eclipses in importance the championship bout between Wallace and Wilde, but is no guarantee that it will prove as interesting. Both are titular affairs, and Queen City fans are fortunate that they will be able to see such sterling boxers in action.

One of the directors of the carnival for New York, where he will make an offer to middleweight Wilson to defend his title here.

PAPIN'S POOR SHOWING.

New York, May 20.—The poor showing by Georges Papin, the lightweight champion of France, who was stopped in six rounds the other night by Tedler is already causing folks to ask questions about Georges Carpentier. Papin is supposed to be the best man among the European lightweights, just as Carpentier is the best among the heavyweights.

Francois Descamps probably thought that he did a smart thing in bringing Papin over here. If he knew Papin did not hope to beat a boy like Tedler, however, then, while he got the purse of perhaps $4,000 for him, he may have done a foolish thing. For it may force Carpentier to fight Bill Brennan or some one else to prove his right to a match for the championship of the world with Dempsey.

CARPENTIER GETS $3,000,000 SALARY FROM THE MOVIES.

New York, May 21.—Georges Carpentier has signed a three-year moving picture contract calling for a total salary of $3,000,000 and should he win the world's title his salary is to be doubled. It was announced here today by R. S. Cole of the Robertson-Cole moving picture production company. Carpentier just completed his first movie, "The Wonder Man," for the Robertson-Cole company.

Carpentier was offered the movie contract more than a week ago, it is reported.

BECKETT AFTER JACK DEMPSEY.

New York, May 17.—The victory Joe Beckett, England's heavyweight champion, scored over Bombardier Wells, has gone to his head to such an extent that he now wants to fight Jack Dempsey. Beckett is going to have two more fights in England and then he is coming to America. While here he intends to seek matches with both Dempsey and Georges Carpentier. A Carpentier-Beckett match would be a rather interesting affair and it may be arranged, for Carpentier knows how he stands with Mr. Beckett. As for Beckett meeting Dempsey, that is just one of the Englishman's little jokes.

WILDE CONTINUES TO EAT THEM UP.

Philadelphia, May 17.—Jimmy Wilde, British flyweight champion, knocked out Battling Murray, of Philadelphia, in the second round of a scheduled eight-round bout here to-night.

Two minutes and thirteen seconds of the round had elapsed when Wilde with a wicked right chop to the jaw, sent Murray to the floor. No count was needed, as Murray was clean out.

Just before the knockout blow was delivered Wilde sent the Philadelphia fighter for a count of eight with a left hook to the chin. He staggered to his feet and the British champion put over the finishing blow.

LEONARD TO BOX CALLAHAN.

Boston, May 18.—Frankie Callahan's long chase after Benny Leonard has finally been successful. The lightweight champion has finally consented to a match with this hard-punching contender, which will be held at Portland, Ore., on June 21. It will be a 10-round no decision battle.

came known, and did not sign it until to-day at Rochester. The contract may mean that Carpentier will put off for months his planned return to Europe. Through his movie connections he will be able to earn more than he could by returning to Europe for boxing dates and it is believed that he will stay in America until he meets Jack Dempsey.

For a moment in the first round Murray looked like a possible winner. Ten seconds after the bell rang he staggered the champion with a left hook. Wilde appeared worried as Murray aggressively followed up the blow, but before the end of the round the British fighter rallied and finished strong.

Twice before Leonard gained the crown, Callahan was credited with popular verdicts over him. Since taking the title away from Freddie Welch, Leonard has cautiously avoided Callahan. He has been hounded so much for this match that he has finally consented to it. Benny Murphy announced its completion to-day.

The match will be held at a time when the Shriners' Convention will be on in that city. A purse of $30,000 has been offered for the match, of which Leonard has been guaranteed $20,000 and Callahan $10,000.

Two clubs in the West are trying hard to sign up Jimmy Wilde, the flyweight champion, and Jack Sharkey, of this city for a bout on any date which is acceptable to Wilde. These clubs are the National A. C. of Milwaukee, conducted by Frank Milkern, and that of Al Day of Detroit, who intends to stage open air boxing shows at the Detroit Baseball Club's grounds this summer. Both promoters have guaranteed Sharkey $10,000 for his end, which his manager has accepted. Wilde has been telegraphed by the promoters asking for his consent to the match.

Those Who Don't Intend to Marry. A new engagement ring is wanted—for men and women pals. That married and engaged couples should wear a ring as a sign of the bond between them has always been a custom, but no provision has been made for couples whose interest in each is simply friendly.

During the War scores of real friendships sprang up between those who worked and played together, and a great many of these have lasted. So why shouldn't men and women pals have a ring too—a special emblem, something like a wedding-ring, to show that, although great friends, they are not engaged. This would have a lot of misunderstanding in these days when men and girls go everywhere together with a freedom hitherto unheard of.

For instance, if a man is seen about with a girl pal, there is always a someone to say that if they're not already engaged, they are certainly going to be. This is awkward for both, and especially so for the girl, since a mistaken idea that she cares for someone else may very easily cause a man who is in love with her to keep silent.

The new engagement ring would be very useful in preventing mistakes of this kind. It should be as simple as possible, for a man cannot as a rule afford to give a girl friend a very expensive present; the girl he loves is another matter. An effective design would be enamel on a plain silver band, and a space might be left for the initials of either the giver or the wearer. The most important thing, however, is to have a ring that is easily recognized as a token of friendship only.

The idea is worth considering, for an "engagement" with no love in it would put friendship between men and women on a definite level of its own, like an engagement, making it far easier and pleasanter than it has ever been before.

Bonavista Bay Man Says Nothing Did Him Any Good Until He Got Tanlac.

Still another wonderful endorsement of Tanlac that will be read with interest throughout Newfoundland, was recently given by John F. Hynes, of St. Brendan's, Bonavista Bay. "Jack," as he is familiarly known by his friends, served three years overseas with the "Royal" Newfoundland Regiment, and since his discharge and remarkable recovery of health, has returned to his former work as a miner. In telling of his experience with Tanlac, Mr. Hynes said: "After three years of 'bully beef' and life in the trenches overseas, my stomach got into such bad shape that I had to be sent to the hospital. I couldn't eat a thing without it causing me awful gnawing pains in the pit of my stomach, and I would bloat up with gas until I was fit to burst. My food seemed to do me no good for I lost weight right along until I was nothing but a 'bag of bones.' The military people did their best for me and sent me from one hospital to another until I had been in about a dozen, and I must have taken enough medicine to fill a dory, but somehow or other I got no better and began to think my case was hopeless.

"Then last year while in Halifax, I heard so many people talking about Tanlac and the way it was helping people, that I bought a couple of bottles. It sure is a great medicine and it did the work for me. I soon got so that I could eat like a hungry wolf without suffering any bad after-effects in the way of cramping pains or indigestion. Before I had finished those two bottles I had gained twelve pounds in weight and was feeling as well and strong as ever. I shall always have a good word to say for Tanlac and am glad of this chance to let folks know what a grand medicine it is.

Tanlac is sold in St. John's by M. Connors; by Reg. Sullivan, Pouch Cove; Sound Island Store, Sound Island; Dennis Flynn, Avondale; J. O'Brien, Cape Broyle.—adv

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir.—I have read the series of articles from the pen of Mr. I. C. Morris giving a description of his trip to New York, and if I am permitted to exist, intend to continue reading them with interest to the finish. Our genial friend is not of the selfish make up who content themselves with seeing pleasing sights and keeping all the pleasure to themselves. And for that we thank him and express the wish that as years roll on he may continue to pay annual visits to even more distant cities and reveal to us the secrets of unknown lands. Apart from the information and pleasure that Mr. Morris's trip give us, we look forward to even greater benefits being bestowed upon us as a result of the lessons to be learned from such visits by a gentleman of such keen perception. And foremost among them is the cleaning up of our own little city. No man can return from such a trip without realizing that we are a century behind in beauty and cleanliness. Surely he has found out a practical way to keep down the dust that blinds the pedestrian, giving us sore eyes, putting us in bad humour, and spoiling our high priced clothing. Surely he has realized that in order to keep our streets any way near a clean condition it is necessary that they be swept once a week at least, and that such sweeping should be done at early morning before citizens start out to work. Surely he has learned that the boulders popping up on the sidewalks of New Gower and Duckworth Streets should be dislodged and nice sand or clay placed thereon and then rolled down nice and level. Of course he must realize that the dust nuisance in this city has become intolerable. We do not anticipate any wonder work from the visit of Councillor Morris, but when he finishes his articles we expect that he will roll up his sleeves and try to inaugurate a general shaking up of those who have charge of our thoroughfares. To me it seems that the Council and Council employees are gone asleep. Rouse them, oh Councillor, from their slumbers, get them as a starter to clean up the drains to improve the sidewalks, to sweep the streets. This will not cost the city very much and we will sing your praises for evermore. Do not let it go as it is going, for if you do we will all die of poisoning when the warm weather arrives. Again thanking Councillor Morris for his interesting information and once again suggesting that he put the lessons learned abroad into practice in our home town.

I am,
Yours sincerely,
MAY 29, 1920.

Petitions Presented.

Some 300 petitions have been presented to the House of Assembly for Modification of the Prohibition Law. Outside of St. John's the leading districts are Twillingate and Trinity. The number of signatures received by the Modification Committee totals about 30% of the vote cast at the last general election. In many places the petition was not circulated by those to whom it was sent and in some cases the clergy successfully forbade its circulation. On the other hand many of the petitions are signed by clergymen of the larger denominations.

IOLANTHE.—A full rehearsal, Principals and Chorus, will be held in the C.C.C. Hall on Monday, May 31st. Ladies at 7.30 p.m. sharp; Gentlemen at 8 p.m.—May 29, 21

It is When the Nerves Are Tired That You Cannot Sleep

It isn't the body that craves rest, but the mind. When you are bodily tired you can usually fall to sleep at the first opportunity. But when the nerves are irritated by anxiety and worry rest and sleep seem to be impossible. The mind seems to be most alert, and you are thinking, thinking, thinking—first of one thing and then of another—often matters of little or no importance. But you simply cannot sleep. Sleeplessness is the most common and often the first indication of a breaking down of the nervous system. The object of sleep is to allow the body to rebuild tissue and the nerves to recover tone. Sleep is the ideal condition for this process. If you cannot sleep you worry, and worry breaks down nerve cells at a tremendous rate, so that instead of laying up nerve force for the demands of the day you are using up the reserve. The nerve centres are sometimes likened to storage batteries. If you continue to consume the nervous energy in reserve, without paying back, these centres become sooner or later depleted, and you find yourself a nervous wreck. After a sleepless night you get up feeling tired and lacking in mental energy. Your day's work seems more than you can face, and you become down-hearted and discouraged. The future is not bright, for you must realize that the natural result is exhausted nerves, paralysis, locomotor ataxia or some form of helplessness. In Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is found the most natural and the most rational treatment for the nerves imaginable, because this food cure contains the vital substances which go to the building up of the blood and the depleted nerve cells. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food does not induce sleep, but it does restore the nervous system, and after you have been using it for a few days you will begin to find yourself resting and sleeping naturally. New Church for St. Michael's Parish.

St. Michael's Parish recently purchased a portion of Buckmaster's Field at the corner of LeMarchant Road and Golf Avenue. On this land it is intended to build a new stone church. The present building, a wooden one, is not accommodating enough, and the need for a new church has been felt for some years. Nevertheless, the new church building will not be begun this summer.
