And now for the program. Tommy Burns will be the big show, or at least, he will have the biggest part of the work. He is to box six rounds, three with Morris and three with Pelkey. Mickey McIntyre and Buster Brown will box another three rounds. In addition to the boxing program the spectators will be able to get a first-hand idea of the work that the boxers have to go through to prepare for every contest. Each of the boxers will punch the bag, shadow box and go through the various other gymnastic exercises which are essential to the preparation for a boxing contest.

Almost a hundred boxing fans braved the cold wind yesterday and wended their way to the Manchester Arena to watch Andy Morris go through his training stunts with Tommy Burns, as his chief sparring partner. Morris showed more stuff yesterday than at my time since his arrival and boxing fans who have witnessed both men work out are unanimous in predicting that Thursday's contest between the heavyweights will be a crackerjack. Without passing judgment upon the championship calibre of either of the men, it is safe to say that the bout will be even with very little difference in reach. In experience Morris has the better of it. Pelkey's fast left jab is in his favor while Morris has the advantage of a wicked right which he knows how to use.

Mickey McIntyre is in splendid shape right now and will have the advantage over Griffith of being acclimatized Griffith was expected in last night but did not put in his appearance, and the overlook the engagement. His transportation has been taken up at Cincinnati. If he does not arrive today a strenuous effort will be made to find a substitute.

Vancouvey, April 28.—A telegram protesting against the disqualification of Scotty McKay was sent to the A. A. U. officers at Toronto last night, and a letter, for an explanation of this matter has also been forwarded to the eastern secretary. The coast officials feel that they have been slighted in regard to McKay, who is a coast boxing champion, and would like an explanation. He, too, grabbed his glove and disappeared in record-breaking time. That's the way to keep the game moving.

AND GUINNESS' STOUT

IN PACKAGES OF ONE DOZEN NIPS—SEE CUT

After a long delay in trying to get a good boxing card for the fans of Calgary, I have succeeded in matching Andy Mor-ris, of Boston, against Arthur Pelkey for 12 rounds. Morris is a heavyweight, weighing 200 pounds; he has boxed nearly all the "white hopes" around Boston and New York. He has met Pelkey on two occasions; each contest went the limit, most of the Eastern papers calling it a draw. Both men are anxiously waiting the decision of this contest, as the winner is matched with Luther McCarty for May 24.

I am boxing Andy Morris one day at the arena and Arthur Pelkey the following day at the Elbow View Hotel gym, and the fans are all invited to watch both men go through their training every day at 3 o'clock.

Mickey McIntyre, the welterweight champion of the West, will box Billy Griffiths, of Cincinnati, 12 rounds. Griffiths is the boy who beat Ray Bronson last week in the East, and claims the welterweight championship of the United States. These boys are also very evenly matched, and this contest is the first of the series for the welterweight championship of the world, and, at any price, it is my aim to furnish the best boxing contests there are to be had in the world for the fans of Alberta.

Another good card on this date will be a ten-round contest between Roy George, of Calgary, and Young Ross, of Winnipeg, and there will not be a boxing fan that won't get his money's worth when he visits the Burns arena on May 1.

The Manchester street cars will take you to the arena. Boxing starts at 8.30 sharp, and there will be no delays. Prices: General admission, $2; reserved seats, $3; ringside seats, $4; box seats, $5; and 300 general admission seats will be sold at $1.00 each after 9 o'clock. Tickets are for sale at the leading hotels and cigar stores and at both my clothing stores, 130 and 213 Eighth avenue west. Mail orders will be promptly attended to.
