lecture hall on Tuesday evening next.
We are ready for the school opening next week.—J. L. Luckham.

The annual meeting of the Mosa & Ekfrid Agricultural Association will be held at the Thomson Hall on Wednesday, January 10th, commencing at 1 o'clock.

There will be no service in the Church of Christ, Glencoe, on Sunday, Dec. 31st, owing to the absence of the pastor, Mr.
O. D. Fournier, who is enjoying a well-earned vacation.

Mrs. James Pole, wife of the first turnkey at the county jail, was knocked down by a runaway horse while walking on the sidewalk in London on Friday and badly hurt.

Mr. T. A. G. Gordon, banker, of Alvin-ton, was married at Elmira, Ont., yesterday to Miss Mand Miles. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon will be at home to their friends after New Years.

Mr. M. Toon, butcher, dressed a prime beef last week for the Christmas trade.
It weighed 900 lbs. Mr. Toon's shop was prettily decorated with evergreens and holly berries for the holiday season.

The remains of the late Margaret Mc-Rae, of Dunwich, arrived by train from Detroit on Sunday and were interred at the Kerr cemetery. Mrs. McRae died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Finlayson, in Detroit. Her age was 35 years.

A pleasant time was spent at the Thomson Hall on Thursday evening, the occasion being the annual Sunday School entertainment of St. John's Church. The children gave their several numbers on the programme in first-class style and everybody had a thoroughly good time.

One who has guessed the weather pretty correctly for December tells us to look out for storms of wind and rain

On Saturday last Mr. A. Smart was agreeably surprised on his return home from his office, to find there a beautiful quartered oak cabinet with a card attached bearing this inscription:—"Compliments of St. John's Church congregation, with best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year." Mr. Smart and family wish to thank the congregation for their kind remembrance and wish all a prosperous New Year.

The annual meeting and election of officers for 1900 of the Glencoe Fire Company was held Tuesday evening.
The Secretary's report, showing the work of the company since its organization, was ordered to be sent to the village council. The officers elected are Edwin Gale, captain; Isaac McCracken, first lieutenant; John Hayter, second lieutenant; G. R. Westland, secretary; Jas. H. Clamahan, treasurer. The company meets next Tuesday evening for hose coupling drill.

Regular meetings of the West Middlesex Farmers' Institute will be held in the Town Hall, Appin, on Wednesday, Jan. 17, and the Town Hall, Mt. Brydges, on Thursday, Jan. 18. Sessions each day will begin at 1:30 and 7:30 p. m. F. M.
Lewis, Burford; G. B. Campbell, Appin; John McMillan, M. P., Seaford; R. C.
Twiss, Glencoe, and L. Fortune, Strathroy, are among the speakers.
Many topics of importance will be brought forward for discussion by these gentlemen, and musical and literary programmes are being arranged for the evening sessions.

Wm. Tait, son of Mr. Wm. Tait, of South Ekfrid, who was injured while tobogganing on the 22nd inst. died at the Victoria Hospital in London at noon on Friday. Mr. Howard was telephoned for and the remains were brought home on Saturday and the funeral took place from his father's residence to Oakland cemetery on Monday, service being held in the Tait's Corners Presbyterian church. The deceased was a promising young man in his 21st year and the high esteem in which he was held throughout the community was testified by the very large attendance at the funeral. Very much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved family.

At their meeting on Wednesday evening, the 20th inst., the Sons of Scotland elected the following officers for the ensuing year:—Chief, D. N. Munroe; chieftain, John Thomson; chaplain, G. C.
McFarlane; financial secretary, H. D.
Cameron; recording secretary, Angus D. Mitchell; treasurer, Dr. Henderson; marshal, Jas. Allan; standard bearer, Chris. Duncanson; senior guard, James Glasgow; junior guard, Arch. McLachlan; auditors, D. B. Graham and G. C.
McFarlane; trustees, John McKellar, Dan. McKenzie and Dan. McGregor.
On Wednesday evening, Jan. 3, after the installation of officers, an oyster supper will be held at the American Hotel.

The members and friends of the Methodist Sunday School had a merry time at the annual entertainment on Christmas night, the Opera House being filled by a very appreciative audience. Recitations, songs, etc., by the little ones, were the main features of the programme. The "Sunflower" and "Good Night" drills by little girls were well performed and very pleasing. A "Tambourine Drill" by 12 young ladies was a particularly fine one, the various movements being executed gracefully and correctly. The "peaked" sisters, in their medley of song, were very mirth-provoking and received an encore. A couple of quartettes were nicely given by members of the church choir, and the programme closed with the patriotic song, "Soldiers of the Queen," by Mr. E. Sex-smith, and the singing of the National Anthem. Rev. H. W. McTavish was chairman.

The annual Christmas entertainment in connection with the Presbyterian Sunday School was held on Wednesday evening, Dec. 20, and was highly successful in every respect. Every available corner in the lecture room was occupied, and some could not get even standing room. The programme, which consisted for the most part of a cantata entitled, "St. Nicholas' Visit to the School," although somewhat lengthy was evidently enjoyed by the large audience. The music was bright and sparkling, and the choruses, solos, duets, &c., were well rendered. Besides those who were mentioned in the foregoing a couple of weeks ago as taking the various parts in the cantata the following also gave recitations:—Norman Younge, Ross Robertson, Ethel McCracken, Maggie Corbett, Willie McKenzie, Bella Ralph, Aggie Younge, Angus Hillman, Hugh McCree, Clarissa Graham, Ewen McEwen, Geo. McCree and John Hillman; there were also vocal selections by Dan and Roy Finlayson, Clara and Beatrice Lumley, Annie Crothers, Bella McKellar, Lizzie Younge, Flossie Finlayson and others. Archie McKellar, Glendon McLachlan, Tommie Harris and Kenneth Hurdle, who also had part in the cantata, acquitted themselves admirably. On the whole the evening was a thoroughly enjoyable one, especially to the children, who each received a bag of candy and nuts as they retired. The meeting was closed by singing "God Save the Queen." Proceeds, $90.15.

While Mr. Frank Bailey of Hamilton was attempting to assist a horse, which had fallen on the streets, it rolled on him and broke his leg.

If taken in time the D. & L. Emulsion will surely cure the most serious affections of the lungs. That "run down" condition, the after effects of a heavy cold is quickly counteracted. Manufactured by the Davis & Lawrence Co. Ltd.

The Duke of Westminster, "the richest man in England," is dead.
