A cynical humor had caught the philosopher when his youngest son inquired:
"Did you ever read Aesop's fables?"
"Yes."
"Things are very different now from what they were when Aesop was alive."
"Very."
"He couldn't get birds and other animals to talk now, could he?"
"No, my boy. The only thing outside of the human race that talks now is money. And it is generally too busy looking after its own affairs to give much good advice."

Look in at a pawnbroker's window and try to fit a history to the various articles there displayed. A strange assortment. From the old family signet ring of the broken gentleman, to the well-used hammer of the once skillful and industrious artisan; none to supply the craving of the victim of the drink disease. This dread disease is no respector of persons. Clergymen lose their gowns, doctors their practices, wealthy merchants their business, laboring men their work. It spares none.
Yet all alike may be permanently when both he and Sir Oliver Mowat will address the electors in the evening.

Mr. Laurier's other Western Ontario engagements are:

Glencoe—June 4, afternoon.
Chatham—June 4, night.

Bel River, Essex—June 4, afternoon.
Windsor—June 5, night.

Amherstburg—June 5, night.
Ailsa Craig—June 6, afternoon.

St. Marys—June 8, night.
Listowel—June 9, afternoon.

Stratford—June 9, night.
A few more engagements will be made. No person will accompany Mr.
Laurier throughout the tour, but arrangements for other speakers will be made locally. Hon. G. W. Ross will speak at Glencoe, Mr. William Paterson at Ailsa Craig and St. Marys.

Sir Oliver Mowat has made no engagement for Quebec yet, nor for any other meeting except the London one.

London and Environs

—The Woman's Auxiliary to the Young Men's Christian Association met on Friday at 4 p.m., with a fairly good attendance. The reports from collectors for furnishing fund, and to transact other business.

Miss Ware, the energetic president, was in the chair, and the treasurer, Mrs. E. H. Gregston, was again at her post after a long illness.

The reports from the collectors were very encouraging. Mesdames F. N.
Soper and Sayer secured $35 in their district from 83 ladies. Misses Hobbs and Nelles came next with $35.10.

Mrs. (Hon. David) Mills and Miss Cosford, with South London workers, reported $30.75. Mesdames Jones, Connors, McCormick and R. F. Mattison presented reports which were very satisfactory, and all go to show that the women of London are going to furnish the new building as it should be.

Miss M. Burns was elected secretary of the auxiliary, and the following ladies compose the executive committee: Miss Ware (president), Mrs. S.
Glass, Mrs. (Dr.) McFargart, Mrs. E. H.
Gregston, Mrs. J. R. Shuttleworth, Mrs. J. W. Jones, Mrs. Chas. R.
Sayer, Mrs. D. Mills, and Misses Burns, Gibson and Moore.

With such a strong committee the work of the auxiliary is sure to be carried to a successful issue.

Murray, of Euphrasia; W. Strong, of Millbank, and McCracken, of Chesley.
The bishop will hold confirmation service in the same place in the evening.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.
London will have a number of very distinguished visitors next week. Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson and the Hon.
Lady Rivers-Wilson are expected on Monday or Tuesday. They will be accompanied by General Manager Hays, Assistant General Manager G. B.
Reeve, General Superintendent Mc-Guigan, Assistant Superintendent Mc-Gill and Chief Engineer Hobson. On Wednesday the city will be honored by a visit from Sir Oliver Mowat and Hon. Wilfrid Laurier. On Thursday and Friday, Gen. Gascoigne, the millitary commander of the Canadian militia force, will inspect the men and the barracks here. The men are up early and late cultivating a beautiful tan and getting up their drill.

SUCH-STRONG.
There were married at St. Paul's Cathedral on Saturday last by Very Rev. Dean Innes, Mr. H. Granville Such, of Toronto (formerly of London), to Miss Frances Veronice, only daughter of the late George Strong, of London, and Julia E. Strong, of 114 Simcoe street, this city. Mr. Such is the only son of George Granville Such, of London, England. The bride, gown in ivory satin, with pearl ornaments, enveloped in a mist of tulle and orange blossoms, entered the church upon the arm of her eldest brother, Chas. Anson Strong, and was led to the altar to the strain of beautiful music rendered by Mr. Geo. Appleton. The bride-maid, Miss Alma Murray, attired in pink silk and large white lace hat, and bearing the bridal bouquet, led the way, and was met at the altar by H. Strong, who did the honors for the groom. The presents were costly and numerous, coming from Toronto, Sarnia, Buffalo, Sarnia, London, England, and London, Ont.

The young couple left on the afternoon train for Hamilton, Niagara and Buffalo. They will settle in Toronto.
