> Council of British Cabinet Members Held This Morning.

London, Sept. 22.-A telegram from Allahabad, British India, says: "The Pioneer today prints a dispatch saying negotiations have been concluded by Great Britain for taking possession of Delogoa Bay Nov. 1." THE CABINET MEETING. Cabinet Council was held today, beginning at 12:30 p.m. A large crowd assembled about Downing street early in the day. The cabinet ministers were loudly cheered, the secretary of state for the colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, receiving the lion's share of the applause. Previous to the meeting of the cabinet, Lord Rothschild visited the first lord of the treasury, Mr. A. J. Balfour. The circumstance is unusual and is said to be in connection with the money difficulties the government is encountering regarding the prospective military campaign.

When the cabinet went into session no new developments in the Transvaal situation had transpired. The dispatches from the Cape continued of a wardike tone and voiced the indignation of the British contingent against the Orange Free State and Afrikander attitudes. The impression current here, though not based on anything tangible, was that publicly the cabinet would only take steps tending to protect the negotiations, while secretly, it would prepare the details of an aggressive campaign, perhaps deciding to convoke parliament, though it was scarcely be-lieved the latter determination would be announced immediately. News from South Africa is eagerly awaited, as many think the cabinet council will immediately be followed by a Boer raid. The cabinet meeting ended at 2:40 p.m. The ministers were cheered as they came out of the foreign office. Household Furniture, Tuesday. PUZZLED.

The government is faced with some-thing like a dilemma. The leader of the Opposition has publicly denounced the precipitancy of the colonial office in forcing a conflict. Therefore ministers are disinclined to convoke parliament. If, on the other hand, so large an expenditure as the apparent atutude of the Orange Free State would involve, should become necessary, the government would be obliged to summon parliament in order to get adequate supplies. RATEPAYERS are hereby notified that the second instalment of 1899 Taxes is due and must be paid before 30th September, after which date five per cent will be added on all

It is understood that ... money ques-tion accounts for the dribbling manner in which the troops are being forwarded. German military experts, realizing the seriousness of the campaign before Great Britain, are commenting with astonishment on the fact that England is so far behind hand in her preparations. In Berlin this also here preparations. In Berlin it is also be-lieved that Dr. Leyds is acting as President Kruger's evil genius and misleading him by reports that he is likely to get sympathy, if not assistance, from some of the European powers.

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned and indorsed "Tender for Public Building, Woodstock, Ont.," will be received at this office until Tuesday, 3rd October, 1899, for the erection of a Public Building at Woodstock, Ont., according to a plan and specification to be seen at the Department of Public Works, Ottawa, and at the office of A. S. Ball, Esq., Barrister, Woodstock, Ont.

Tenders will not be considered unless made on the form supplied, and signed with the actual signatures of the tenderers.

An accepted bank check, payable to the order of the Minister of Public Works, equal to ten per cent (10 p.c.) of the amount of the tender, must accompany each tender. The check will be forfeited if the party decline the contract or fail to complete the work contracted for, and will be returned in case of non-acceptance of Steyn's speech at the opening of the session is regarded as an almost infallible indication of the attitude of which the Free State will take. Commenting from this point of view, the London morning papers are all impressed with the added gravity of the situation and murmurs are beginning to be heard regarding the dilatoriness of the government in getting troops forward.

Military men are said to be impatient.

They assert that everything is ready and they are only waiting for orders. It is recognized that the Free State attitude makes the original estimate, based upon Dutch neutrality, too small, Evidently a much larger force will be revealed. SIR JOHN'S VIEWS.

don Sprigg, leader of the Opposition in don Sprigg, leader of the Opposition in the Cape House of Assembly and former premier, in the course, of an interview, said: "I have no doubt that a portion of the people in the colony would be actively anti-British in the event of a war with the Transvaal. I do not anticipate a mighty but some do not anticipate a rising, but some of the young and impulsive Afrikandof the young and impulsive Afrikanders would probably show their sympathies by joining the Boer forces. In my judgment the proceedings at today's meeting of the Afrikander members of the Cape parliament were most injudicious. No mention was made of any sympathy with those who would suffer while fighting on the British side. It is impossible that Toronto, Ont., Sept. 22.—The Govern-ment of Ontario submitted to the court those who are doing their best to up-hold British authority should con-ceive anything in the nature of a reof appeal notice of the stated case agreed upon regarding Sunday observance. The chief point upon which a decision will be asked is whether the Ontario Legislature has power to tirement from the position adopted by the imperial government. Any such weakness would be fatal to the future amend the Lord's Day Act and pro-hibit persons employed on railways, canals, telegraph lines and other ser-vices controlled by the Dominion Gov-ernment under authority of the Brit-ish North America Act, from pursuing their authoritions on Sundays. The maintenance of peace in South Africa. Referring to the speech of Sir Wm. Vernon Harcourt in New Tredegar, Sir John said he considered it ill-advised, especially at the present juncture. In his opinion, Sir William's statement that Britain could not claim sovereignty in the Transvaal when she had only partial suzerainty, would do more than anything else to spread dissatisfaction. "I will remind the British public," said Sir John, "that Sir

Shall Parliament Be Convoked or Not?

T. Steyn read a carefullyprepared speech. After welcoming the burghers, he expressed regret that the relations between the Transvaal and Great Britain and the outlanders had become strained. Members, he said, were aware of the meeting of Sir Alfred Milner and President Kruger at Bloemfontein, when President Kruger made proposals, which, although remade proposals, which, although re-fused by the British high commissioner, were unanimously considered throughout the Orange Free State to be exceedingly fair. Proceeding to review the negotiations, President Steyn said the Transvaal had been decided by the British diplomatic agent at Pretoric Mr. Conventions Creams and Pretoria, Mr. Conyngham Greene, and he practically accused the imperial government of a breach of faith. He said he was disinclined to advise the Transvaal government to accept the latest British demands. The present critical state of affairs could not be a matter of indifference to the Orange Free State, which was bound by a treaty to afford assistance to the Transvaal, and he had, therefore, convened the Volksraad to decide what attitude should be taken. "There is nothing," declared the president, "that warrants war or attack on the Transvaal. Such differences can be solved by arbitration. It would be an insult to religion and civilization." In conclusion, President Steyn said he would take this opportunity to lay would take this opportunity to lay draft laws before the Volksraad, pray-ing God to give the members strength to pass resolutions not only conducive to peace and prosperity, but also in the interest of their beloved state. Immediately after the speech President Steyn asked the Volksraad to go into secret session, which was agreed to unanimously. RUMORS.

It is stated that the returns from the field cornets of the Transvaal and Orange Free State show that 52,000 burghers are ready to take the field at short notice. Major-General Hunter and his staff. with the Devonshire regiment and a squadron of the Nineteenth Hussars, have sailed for the Cape. Vanity Fair, frequently well infomed regarding political secrets, today emphatically reiterates the assertion that there will be no war. It says: "President Kruger is an old man, but he is no dotard. He would like to get his own way, but not at the cost of de-feat. Climb down he will.

ment the following telegram was dispatched to President Kruger: "We, Afrikander members of parliament, thoroughly sympathize with our Afrikander relatives in their troubles. While appreciating the concessions already made in the interests of peace, we beg to urge the expediency or doing the utmost, short of sacrificing independence, to avert the horrors of war. While agreeing that the joint inquiry proposed by Mr. Chamberlain cannot be asked as a matter of right, we believe such a commission will provide a way out of the difficulties which are the Transvaal and our Free State brethren, but also to the Afrikander party of Cape Colony. In the presence of immediate danger and momentous issues awaiting the decision of your honor, the executive and the Volksraad, even the risk of being privately before the executive and Volksraad." KRUGER'S REPLY.

of our common interests and risks

This message, which was signed by fifty-three members of parliament, received the following reply from President Kruger: "I wish vou and other sympathizers will notice, as you have doubtless already seen by the reply of the imperial government, that we have, according to your desire, considered the matter and accepted the invitation of the joint commission. Why the acceptance was delayed as shown by the dispatches published. I wish to thank you and other friends once more, from my heart, for the manner in which you have aided our efforts for a pacific and satisfactory solution. Finally, I express the hope that your work and ours will not be fruitless."

STRIKE ENDED.

Dundee, Scotland, Sept. 22.—The lock-out in the local jute manufactories ended last evening. The strike originally involved only certain of the fac-tories, where the spinners demanded an increase in wages of 5 per cent, but the associated manufacturers closed their works, thus stopping between 40 and 50 factories, and throwing 40,000 workers out of employment. Such drastic measures were hard upon a majority of the workers, who had no share in the spinners' strike, and also misunderstood, is of minor importance.
We beg your honor to lay these words, only dictated by a keen sense keeping £30,600 per week out of circulation. The result is a defeat of the strikers. At a mass meeting, with the Rev. Henry Williamson in the chair, it was decided that the demand of the spinners was just, yet to avoid further distress they would accept the old pay f the manufacturers would open the ZOLA TO DREYFUS. Paris, Sept. 22.-The Aurore this morning publishes a letter written by Emile Zola to Madame Dreyfus, in which the writer rejoices at the former captain's pardon, but says that if doubtless comes late. "It is revolting," writes M. Zola, "to obtain pity, when one asks for justice; and all has been preconcerted in order to bring about this last iniquity. The judges, wishing to strike the innocent in order to save the guilty, seek refuge in an act of horrible hypocrisy which they call mercy." M. Zola expresses regret that the government trembled before the arrogance of a faction. CABLE NOTES.
