—Sergeant Jackson, of the Windsor police force, is holidaying in the city.

—Brother Angelus, C. S. C., will leave for St. Marys the first of next week.

—Miss Maude Cox, of Cincinnati, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. Gibbons, of Colborne street.

—Messrs. J. Holman and H. Eaton, of Toronto, have returned home after visiting friends in London and Ingersoll.

—Mr. Henry Ware, of West London, has received his Fenian raid medal and clasps for services in 1896 and 1897.

—Miss Florence Ware, 37 Oxford street, West London, has left for a two months' visit with friends in Hearnsey, N. W. T.

—Mrs. Philip Gee, of Dorchester, has returned home, after spending a very enjoyable visit with her sons and other relatives in Nepeawa, Manitoba.

—Rev. Canon Richardson, rector of St. John's, who has been away nearly three months, arrived home from England last evening. He was a passenger on board the Cornithian, Allan Line, from Liverpool to Montreal.

—Major Beattie, M. P., who went to Guelph to confer with the Conservative leaders and try and arrange a meeting here for Friday night, has announced that Sir Charles Tupper and Hon. Hugh John Macdonald could not consent, as they already have addresses to make on that date.

—The priests of London Diocese are to assemble at Painscourt today and tomorrow to join in the celebration of the golden jubilee of Rev. Father Audreux, the oldest priest in the diocese. The venerable priest will be presented on behalf of the diocese with a gold chalice, a set of gold vestments and a set of gold vestments.

—A number of members of the city council, accompanied by City Engineer Graydon and press representatives, visited the Asylum farm yesterday and inspected the sewage disposal system in use there. After viewing the admirable arrangements for the collection and disposition of the sewage and the results achieved by its use, the party repaired to Dr. Buckle's office, where they sampled some muskmelons and watermelons grown on the farm. The party then paid a visit to the city sewage farm, and discussed the construction of the proposed filtration beds there.

—Mr. Samuel Warrington, of Buffalo, a former Londoner, is in the city with his 13-months-old child. Mr. Warrington met with a grievous loss in the sudden death of his wife at Buffalo on Thursday last. The deceased lady was crossing the street carrying her baby in her arms, and when about to board the car she suddenly fell to the pavement, the child rolling from her arms. Mr. Warrington was picked up dead. She was an estimable young woman. Mr. Warrington will shortly return to Buffalo, where he is connected with a large coal concern.

—A very large number of ladies assembled by the kindness of the W. C. A. at their rooms on Tuesday afternoon, to hear and answer questions bearing upon the proposal to start in London, as elsewhere, classes for the teaching of domestic science, including sewing, hygiene, etc., by Mrs. Mitchell, who for three years has been in charge of the School of Domestic Science at Toronto, and occupied other similar positions in that city. All were agreed as to the value of such classes, and it is more than likely that very soon Mrs. Mitchell will make her venture. She is prepared to answer all inquiries, and her address can be obtained at the W. C. A. rooms.

Mrs. S. H. Webster, of Galveston, Tex., she who, with her husband, she escaped with only the clothes she was wearing. It was impossible to describe the terrible condition of affairs. The stench from the dead bodies under the debris was so great that people were being driven out of the city, where thousands were locked up for some days before they could be taken to the mainland. Mrs. Webster does not give any account of how she escaped the fate that befell so many thousands. The city authorities are offering workmen anything they desire to help in building up the place.

RAND CONCERT.

By kind permission of Lieut.-Col. Smith, the Seventh Fusiliers' Band will give the last open air concert of the season at Wolsey Barracks tomorrow (Thursday) evening, Sept. 20, at 8 p.m. The programme has been specially selected for the occasion, and the public will receive a most interesting and profitable evening.

A FAREWELL BANQUET.

At the London Club last night a banquet was tendered by some sixty or seventy of his personal friends to Mr. D. B. Dewar, manager of the local branch of the Bank of Commerce, previous to his departure to assume the management of the Hamilton branch, to which he has been promoted. During the evening Mr. Dewar was presented with a jeweled case filled with gold, together with a valuable ring for Mrs. Dewar as a token of esteem in which he is held. The presentation, as was the whole affair, was quite informal, and was made by Rev. Canon Dann, Mr. Dewar responded, expressing the regret he felt at leaving London and the many pleasant associations he had formed here. Many prominent citizens were among the company of guests, and speech and song made the occasion a pleasant one. Mr. Dewar leaves London bearing with him the high regard of the whole business community. He is also very popular in social circles, and will be missed from among the curlers, among whom he was one of the most enthusiastic.

TO THE TELEGRAPH

Dr. Arthur W. Woodburn Ordained as a Missionary—Interesting Services at Adelaide Street Baptist Church.

Two gatherings of unusual interest took place yesterday in Adelaide Street Baptist Church. The first was the theological examination of a well-known young Londoner, Dr. Arthur W. Woodburn, of Chesley avenue, who has decided to devote his life and talents to the cause of missions in India. The second was the young man's ordination as a missionary, which was coupled with kindly counsel and farewell words of encouragement from his older brethren in the work of the Master.

The council of ministers who acted as an examining board included the Revs. J. C. Brown, B.A., Toronto, secretary of the Baptist Foreign Mission Board; R. R. McKay, Woodstock; G. R. Welch, Woodstock; R. J. Cunningham, Burgessville; D. T. Fothergill, Stratford; E. J. Farmer, B.A., Petrolia; H. C. Speller, Sarnia; J. Coutts, Sarnia township; E. J. Stobo, jun., Poplar Hill; M. D. Coleman, Sarnia; A. T. Gowerby, D.D., T. S. Johnson, C. S. G. Boone, and W. M. Walker, B.A., of London. Added to these were a number of lay delegates from different churches.

The examination of the candidate in the afternoon, which occupied over two hours was comprehensive and searching. Mr. Woodburn passing the ordeal with great credit to himself and to the entire satisfaction of the council.

At the ordination services in the evening there was a good attendance. The church was comfortably filled, and a liberal display of flowers lent a bright and cheerful look to the pulpit.

At the organ, while Mrs. A. E. Brown sang two solos, "Here Am I, Send Me" and "The Hills of Peace," with most pleasing effect. After an opening hymn Rev. E. J. Stobo, read the 11th chapter of Hebrews. Rev. C. E. Boone offered prayer, and Pastor T. S. Johnson introduced Rev. J. G. Brown, of Toronto, secretary of the foreign missionary board, who preached the ordination sermon. The reverend gentleman was for several years a missionary in India, a fact that added much weight to the earnest counsel which he gave the candidate and his young wife, who will share together the privations and perils of missionary work in a foreign clime. Rev. Mr. Brown took as his theme, God's call to Abraham, as described in Genesis xii, 1, 2. He spoke of Abraham as one of the world's greatest men, who, next to Christ, had done most to shape the world's history. God's call to Abraham was the turning point in his life and in the life of humanity. The text contained a command—"Get thee up out of the country;" a promise—"I will make of thee a great nation;" an exhortation—"Be thou a blessing." The preacher having, in a forcible manner, showed the sacrifice that Abraham had to make and how God fulfilled his promise in every particular, then made a personal application of the text to the young minister and his wife, who, like Abraham and Sarah, had heard and obeyed God's call. It was the highest mission, he said, to obey God's call, the greatest of all, to obey. In concluding his remarks the preacher, in a most impressive manner, pointed out the trials of the missionary and also his incomparable joys and his future great reward.

The ministers forming the council then gathered on the platform, and while each one placed his hand on the candidate's head, Rev. Mr. J. Coutts offered an ordination prayer, invoking the divine blessing on the young minister and his partner in the work.

Rev. W. M. Walker, in a tender, brotherly way, made the charge, and extended to Rev. Arthur Woodburn the right hand of fellowship. The congregation and choir then sang a verse of "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," and the interesting service closed with the benediction, pronounced by the newly ordained missionary.

SERVICE OF DESIGNATION

For Miss Carrie Gunn Who Goes to Labor Among the Chinese of British Columbia.

A Number of Presbyterian Divines Assisted—St. Andrew's Church Filled—A Presentation.

Only twice in the history of St. Andrew's Church have there been services of a nature similar to those that were conducted last night, when Miss Carrie Gunn, daughter of Mr. A. M. Gunn, of this city, was designated to work among the Chinese women of British Columbia. For this reason, and because Miss Gunn is well known and highly esteemed by the congregation, they were attended by very many members of her own and other churches. From the statements made last evening, it was plainly apparent that it is a matter of congratulation to St. Andrew's, as a church, to have a representative in the foreign mission work who is so eminently qualified for the work, as far as educational attainments and high Christian character and the nobility of her purpose is concerned.

As was pointed out by Rev. Dr. Johnston, who presided, Miss Gunn had placed herself in the hands of the missions committee of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, to do with her as they desired, to send her wherever she was most needed. The work in China being at present in a chaotic state, and it being impossible at the time to send her to India or other countries, her sphere of work was not determined until Mr. Wm. McMaster went to the committee of the British Columbia asking for a woman missionary who could reach the Chinese women, as it was impossible for him to do. Miss Gunn was then invited to the entire satisfaction of the council.

At the ordination services in the evening there was a good attendance. The church was comfortably filled, and a liberal display of flowers lent a bright and cheerful look to the pulpit.

At the organ, while Mrs. A. E. Brown sang two solos, "Here Am I, Send Me" and "The Hills of Peace," with most pleasing effect. After an opening hymn Rev. E. J. OLD TIME HOUSES....

How similar is the ancient looking house to an out of date suit. And why not, since the clothing is the house of the body? People are often judged by the appearance of their residence, as also are men often judged by the garments they wear. Those careful dressers who will be satisfied only with the most tasty and fashionable clothing are the people who deal with us. They are used to the newest and best lines, and they get these every time at this store. The styles, patterns and shades are strictly up to date.

THE SOUTH AFRICAN STRUGGLE

Brilliant Work of the Canadians Described by Frederick Hamilton, the War Correspondent—An Intensely Interesting Lecture.

The lecture that was given last evening in the London Opera House by Mr. Frederick Hamilton, was of peculiar interest to the people of London, where so many of the brilliant correspondents' comrades in the South African campaign are personally popular.

While introducing him to the audience, which was fairly large and most appreciative, Lieut.-Col. Holmes, D.O.C., who presided, uttered the thoughts all who were present when he spoke in praise of Mr. Hamilton's work.

In telling of his experiences with Canada's world-famed regiment, Mr. Hamilton brought to the story the extensive knowledge of an acute observer of men and manners, whose opportunities have been boundless; the graphic descriptive power of the correspondent, and the polished diction of a thoughtful and educated writer. To all whose interest in South African affairs is still warm, and in the class is every Canadian, his unvarnished narrative of events brings a vivid picture of the great struggle in which our countrymen so distinguished themselves. The lecturer's references to B. Company, and especially to local members, were particularly opportune, and brought to the minds of his hearers until they found expression in tumultuous applause. The lecture was made attractive by the excellent pictures of South African scenes and events that were presented.

MANITOBA WHEAT CROP.

Winnipeg, Sept. 18.—General Manager Thompson, of the Ogilvie Milling Company, returned on Saturday from a drive from Winnipeg to Portage la Prairie. Speaking of the prospects, Mr. Thompson said they were much better than he had anticipated this year. Though damage had been done by rain, it was not of serious character. At High Bluff the wheat crop turned out from 30 to 40 bushels to the acre, where a point less than half this result was expected. At Portage la Prairie, he saw wheat sold from yields of 30 bushels to the acre. With ten days' warm weather there was nothing to fear, as there would be lots of good wheat in the province.

A railway operator at Louisiana, Mo., recently received a present of a dozen young chickens from an old woman, to whom he had been courteous while she was waiting for a train.

BICYCLE ICE TRIP.

Dawson to Skagway, Alaska, by Bicycle.

E. P. Leroy, a newspaper correspondent, was the first one to make the trip successfully from Dawson to Skagway, 500 miles, over the ice, on a bicycle. He was eight days on the way and encountered one of the heaviest snowstorms of the season. He comments on the universal fact that men in the Arctic climate have scurvy and stomach trouble because of poorly-cooked food.

He says when he first went to Alaska he had a good stomach, but it finally gave out; and one day in his search for something that a man without an appetite could eat, he came across some packages of Grape-Nuts food. He knew of the food and its value and was willing to pay 4¢ of an ounce of gold dust ($4) for one package.

He says: "I can assure you the satisfaction of getting something I could eat and digest without suffering was well worth the price. As soon as I had proven to be just what I wanted, I bought the whole lot, and from that day to this, Grape-Nuts food has constituted my chief article of diet."

He says: "Grape-Nuts is quickly picked up as soon as a new lot comes to camp. There is nothing known that gives the miner and frontiersman the strength, with so little volume, as Grape-Nuts food, and it is always ready for use, being perfectly cooked, and can be eaten dry or with a little cream, milk, or water, hot or cold, just as a man likes. I could not have taken any food that would have carried me through my long journey on the ice so well as Grape-Nuts."

The fact that arrested for loose and drunken conduct since the alleged offense was that he weakened the case against the prisoners. Victor B. Hall, the Philadelphia "vitalist," whose peculiar ideas of dieting are said to have resulted in the death of a typhoid fever patient, will stand his trial for manslaughter.

The crown attorney has instructed the sheriff to subpoena 96 petit jurors, instead of the usual panel of 48. Owing to the serious nature of the cases some trouble may be experienced in securing juries. The grand jurors are: J. S. Cousins, Westminster; George A. Cline, North Dorchester; Nathaniel Carrothers, Westminster; James Dunn, city; John Fox, Lucan; Gilbert Grieve, Gillingham; John S. Gibb, Essex; Ephraim Howlett, Delaware; Andrew Hotson, McGillivray; Wm. H. Johns, North Dorchester; North Dorchester; Edward McClurg, Lobo, and Thomas Knappton, London township.

ASSIZES NEXT WEEK

Three Important Criminal Cases To Be Heard—Panel of Petit Jurors Doubled—Grand Jury Selected.

The fall assizes for the county of Middlesex open on Monday next, Sept. 24, before Mr. Justice Rose. There are only three criminal cases set down for hearing, but they are of such a serious nature that this will undoubtedly prove a lengthy sitting of the court. The most important case is, of course, that of Gerald Sifton and Walter Herbert, charged with the murder of the former's father on June 30 last. There is a possibility that the defense will not be ready to go on with the case, and will move for a postponement. Five Gloucester men are to be tried on the charge of committing a criminal assault on a colored woman named Sarah Dorsey. It is expected that Filmore, the youngest of the prisoners, will turn Queen's evidence.

The Dorsey woman has been twice arrested for loose and drunken conduct since the alleged offense was that he weakened the case against the prisoners. Victor B. Hall, the Philadelphia "vitalist," whose peculiar ideas of dieting are said to have resulted in the death
