No one questions the honest motives of those who advocate local option, or prohibition—not even we who brew Regal Lager. But the temperate folk who use Regal Lager as a daily beverage, for health's sake, know how mistaken is the idea that so pure and tonic a drink is an intoxicant.

LONDON AND DISTRICT

Wire Broke.
 A cross-wire on the London street railway system broke on Richmond street, near Dundas, about 10:30 last night, and delayed traffic for nearly half an hour.
Shamrock Off Tracks.
 "The Shamrock," the work car of the London Street Railway Company, jumped the track on the cross-over on Dundas street about 9 o'clock this morning, and tied up the Dundas street line for some time.
Dog Poisoner at Work.
 The dog poisoner is at his work in the city, and this morning there were several evidences of his cruelty on Maitland street, near Dufferin avenue. A couple of very fine dogs were killed, while several cats, not so handsome nor so highly regarded, have also been destroyed.
Epworth League Picnic.
 On Wednesday afternoon the Epworth League of the Richmond Street Mission held their annual picnic to Springbank. A most enjoyable time was spent by about thirty young people in games, bunting, etc. The party arrived back in the city about 9 o'clock, and all agreed they had had a good time. A mission study class has been recently organized in connection with the league.

DR. HAWLEY CRIPPEN JOINED IN THE CHORUS

Fugitive on Montrose Sang With Fellow Passengers at One of the Concerts.

The News of the World, published in London, Eng., has the following comment on the conduct of Crippen, while a passenger on the Montrose: "Though Crippen did not like Miss Leneve to be embarrassed with the polite attentions of her fellow-travellers, he himself was cool enough to join to some extent in the ordinary recreations of life on a liner. Always fond of music, he sometimes attended the concerts held during the voyage, and once, at all events, joined with gusto in the chorus, and laughed heartily at a passenger's rendering of 'We all walked into the shop.' Here are a few of the verses which tickled the 'doctors' sense of humor:

We passed a little laundry, where
 We got our washing done.
 Said Brown, 'There's plenty of girls
 In here.'

BELTZ PRACTICAL FURRIER.

Come in, we'll have some fun.
 Chorus.
 So we all walked into the shop
 To shelter from the rain,
 They wanted to iron my dimples out,
 So we all walked out again.

Inside a big confection shop,
 We saw a big display
 Of pastry there, and a ticket said,
 "Our tarts are cheap today."
 Chorus.

So we all walked into the shop
 To shelter from the rain,
 We ordered some tarts with jam inside,
 Then we all walked out again.

We heard a fellow shouting, just Outside a penny show,
 "Walk up! and visit the big fat girl
 Who came from Borneo."
 Chorus.

So we all walked into the shop
 To shelter from the rain,
 We gave her a penny, and pinched her arm,
 Then we all walked out again.

MOUSE INVADERS
WEINER ROAST PARTY
 Merry Camp Fire Party Had Thrilling Experience.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
 Port Stanley, Aug. 18.—Mrs. Harry Lewis, of Louisville Cottage, Willow Beach, entertained about thirty of her London friends to a most delightful weiner roast on Stanley Beach last evening. A very interesting programme was given, the star feature being the singing of popular songs by Messrs. Eastwood and Lewis. During luncheon great excitement arose among the ladies, for a real live mouse actually appeared and attempted to carry off one of the best roasted weiners. Then a chase began, neither party being aware which was the mouse or the hare. The most enjoyable evening was had by the ladies, who were very much amused at the mouse's attempt.

The Misses Lola Graham, Marjorie Rowe and Irene Simpson, of Erie Rest, were the hostesses of a large bountiful party last evening. All the youth and beauty of Erie Rest were present. A very exciting runaway occurred here at 6 p.m. tonight. Dick Millman's horse and buggy went for a lively sprint down Culbome street. It crossed and recrossed the street several times, ever increasing in speed. The last heard of the outfit it was well on its way to St. Thomas, and it has not been interfered with it must be running yet. The streets were crowded at the time, and it is a wonder that no one was hurt.
