COLLEGIATE TEACHERS ANGRY AT DR. SHAW

Some, However, Do Not Place Much Weight on His Opinion.

A difference of opinion prevails among the teachers of the Collegiate staff over the remarks made by Trustee R. W. Shaw at the meeting of the finance committee of the board of edueation on Friday. Some are said to be viewing the trustee's statements in a serious mood, and thinking that trustee travelled too far in his talk; others are not taking the matter much

Dr. Shaw himself remains of the same opinion that the salary of the faculty should not be increased, although he would not reduce it any. He asserts that the Collegiate staff is already being better paid than other there were dozens of sleighs loaded with Collegiate teachers in Ontario, and should be satisfied with their pr
