Big Motorcycle Party Passes Through London on Long Run

Thirty Toronto Motorcy | Largest Club in America.

The Toronto Motorcycle Club is the clists Accompanied By largest in America, naving which is bers at the present time, which is more than double the membership of the next largest in Chicago.

One of the most notable motorcycle runs ever made in Canada took in London on its journey Sunday, when 30 members of the Toronto Motorcycle Club arrived in the city about noon.

The party was accompanied by four automobiles, the officials in which laid the route and charged up the penalties and scores. The run was under the auspices of the Canadian Motorists, Incorporated, and the route was from Toronto to Goderich, via London, and return, a distance of about 400 miles. The average rate of speed was 18 miles an hour, and this had been maintained all through up to the arrival in London, despite a heavy rain encountered shortly after the run commenced at 2 o'clock Saturday.

Fitzpatrick was found for four hits, three of which helped the locals started a Detroit rally in the sixth inning of today's game, which resulted in two runs and a 5 to 4 victory for the Tigers. Two hits, one a triple by Willett, put the winning scores over. Breton went in the first inning after Weaver had been chased for disputing a decision by the umpire. The newcomer made two hits and scored one run for the Sox. Both Russell and Willett were somewhat out of form on the slab. The score: to score. In the second McAvoy was passed, and sacrificed to second by Getsie, and Beltz's single brought in the first run. In the fourth McAvoy was the first man up again, and hit for three bases, and Stroh's single did the needful. Fryer and Burns pulled down dangerous-looking hits. The story their trip disproved all theories of ab-Davis, Turner and Smith; Collamore duction or elopement. They went together on a journey just for amusement.

> AN INTERESTING GATHERING. The Alpine Club of Canada held their mp this year in Mount Robson Park, British Columbia, on the line of Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. The atndance was a very representative one, and excellent alpine work was done, all the members of the camp feeling that they had had the best camp of their lives. and returned home looking forward to the time when opportunity would occur for them to again visit the same district. Among the members of the camp were a large number of distinguished mountain imbers, who thoroughly explored the erritory and who left with the impression that the new Mount Robson Park holds for the tourist and traveller the finest mountain scenery in the world. The success of the camp will be a very large factor in opening up and bringing to the notice of the world that section of the Canadian Rockles, and taking into consideration the large number of requests that are received at the head offices of the Grand Trunk Pacific for descriptive literature and information regarding the territory, the indications are that a large clientile are looking forward to a visit to this magnificent alpine some future time. During the last few days of the Canadian alpine camp a reso-reads as follows: "Resolved, that the thanks of this camp, in meeting assembled, be hereby tendered to the management of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway for its very practical assistance to the club holding its first camp in the Mount Robson district, and particularly to W. P. Hinton, Esq., the general passenger agent of the said company, for much assistance and many courtesies towards that end

lution was passed by the members, which
