ALLIANCE RECOGNIZED BY LONDON CITIZENS

Will Send French-Speaking Delegates To Greet Visitors.

speaking citizens to greet the officials who come to the city with the "French exhibit" this month. The greeting is to be given in the French towns as a marked and the city with the strength towns as a marked and the city with the strength towns as a marked and the city with the strength towns as a marked and the city with the strength towns as a marked and the city with the strength towns as a marked and the city with the strength to make the city with the strength to make the city with the strength to make the city with the strength to th to be given in the French tongue as touches are marked, and these are mark of deference to the visitors.

to be given in the French tongue as a mark of deference to the visitors.

The Alliance this year aims at getting more closely in touch with the French students of the city. Mrs. C. R. Somerville, the president, feels that the organization might be a great help to the students by letting them hear French spoken and getting them to enter into French conversation. The organization also aims at a study of French art, music and literature, and the year's program will include lessenter in trimming as well as in cut. Knitted woolen fabric comes in for a generous share of applause, since it is not only durable, and most practical, but it has a style decidedly all its own, but it has a style decidedly all its own, but it has a style decidedly all its own, but it has a style decidedly all its own, but it has a style decidedly all its own, but it has a style decidedly all its own, but it has a style decidedly all its own, but it has a style decidedly all its own, but it has a style decidedly all its own, but it has a style decidedly all its own, but it has a style decidedly all its own, but it has a style decidedly all its own, but it has a style decidedly all its own, but it has a style decidedly all its own, but it has a style decidedly all its own.

French art, music and literature, and the year's program will include lectures, little French plays, etc.

Prof. Squair to Speak.

At the first meeting of the Alliance on October 21, at the Normal School, Prof. Squair, for a long time head of the department of French at Toronto University and author of the French Grammar used in the Ontario schools, will be the speaker. And his subwill be the speaker. And his sub-ject to "Les Grandes Epoques de l'Art Francais," to be illustrated with slides. recent meeting of the Alliance executive made arrangements for this meeting, and made plans towards the year's program.

W. C. A. DONATIONS

The Women's Christian Association has recently received some splendid donations for the Victoria Home for Incurables, among the givers are the names Johnson & Barbour and Bert Weir. A handsome oil painting is another gift which was sent anony-

HOTICK'S Malted Milk for Infants

A safe milk diet, better than cow's milk alone. Contains rich milk and malted grain extract.

KITTOM HYTT

An Attractive Display of TOKONABE POTTERY. Price, $1.00 to $4.00.

La Salle Extension University IMPERIAL BANK CHAMBERS.

London & Port Stanley Railway

Effective Sept. 6, 1921.

TO ST. THOMAS: $5:00, $*6:10, 7:05, $*8:20, $9:20, $10:20, $11:20 a.m., $*12:20, $1:20, $2:20, $6:20, $7:20, $5:20, $6:20, $7:20, $1:20 p.m. TO PORT STANLEY: $*6:10, 7:05, $10:20 a.m., $1:20, $3:20; $5:20, $7:20, $10:20 p.m. Limited London to St. Thomas, $1Dally except Sunday.

All trains stop at Glanworth.

Delight

Talcum you will find the same re-freshing

Cynthia Grey's THE FASHIONS Mail-Box

[By Cynthla Grey.] (Copyright by the Fairchild Company.) HAVE you "phonitis"? Are you one of those persons who waste valuable time talking unecessarily over

STRESSING THE SLENDER LINE. After several seasons of having to be Did you ever stop to consider how After several seasons of having to be satisfied with second place, the suit boring you may be to the person on the other end of the wire? Supposing it is a busy housewife you are calling, in triumphant. Even the French women, who are anything but at their best in a suit, have taken to them with enthusiasm.

After several seasons of having to be satisfied with second place, the suit boring you may be to the person on the other end of the wire? Supposing it is a busy housewife you are calling, in the morning—as this seems to be the pet time for attack—when she has a suit, have taken to them with enthusiasm.

After several seasons of having to be satisfied with second place, the suit boring you may be to the person on the other end of the wire? Supposing it is a busy housewife you are calling, in the morning—as this seems to be the pet time for attack—when she has a suit, have taken to them with enthusiasm.

After several seasons of having to be sorting you may be to the person on the other end of the wire? Supposing it is a busy housewife you are calling, in the morning—as this seems to be the person on the other end of the wire? Supposing it is a busy housewife you are calling, in the morning—as this seems to be the person on the other end of the wire? Supposing it is a busy housewife you are calling, in the morning—as this seems to be the person on the other end of the wire? Supposing it is a busy housewife you are calling, in the morning—as this seems to be the person on the other end of the wire? Supposing it is a busy housewife you are calling, in the morning—as this seems to be the person on the other end of the wire? Supposing it is a busy housewife you are calling, in the morning—as this seems to be the person on the other end of the wire? Supposing it is a busy housewife you are calling, in the morning—as this seems to be the person on the other and the person on the other.

Mr. C. E. McCann, of Dunnville, spent hundred and one household duties to attend to. Think how annoyed she is having to Think how a Unfortunately, we all meet persons possessing this habit in every walk of life, no matter how hard we try to Fred. C. Wanless, 74 Byron avenue.

Don't be one of these pests-for this is what they are. If you must talk and chatter, save it all for some time nue, on Friday afternoon, October 14, when you get a poor defenseless victim from 4 to 6 o'clock. face to face, when they have no possible chance of escaping you. And think how much more you will be able to say—and repeat! Don't abuse the use spending the week as guests with Mrs. Nicholson, Petrolea. the whole community!

SENDS LARGE MITE.

Dear Miss Grey,—It is a long time since I have written to the Mail-Box, but I read and enjoy the page, and I've received lots of use-ful information. I see where Gera-nium has sent in two crochet patterns for pillow slips. Could I have them until copied, and will return if wanted? Would like some of Aunt Rose's flower seeds too, some of each. Find inclosed $1 for sick children's hospital. Wishing the page future success. Return postage

The crochet patterns and seeds are dready on their way to you, M. E. D. Thank you very much for such a gener. Our fund is increasing and with what we have already collect-ed from quilts is over $500. PLEASE GIVE NAME.

Dear Miss Grey,—As this is my first visit to your Mail-Box, I do not Intend to stay very long. Well, Miss Grey, how have you been keep-ing these days? Hasn't it been cold this time of the year? Well, I'll have to bother you for a ques-tion, please. Would you be so kind as to send me the meanings and as to send me the meanings and different ways of placing stamps on an envelope? Well, I guess I'll have to close, as the mall man will soon be here. PEACH. be here. PEACH.
You did not give your name and adthe stamp language. If you will send it ln, I shall forward it to you. ow wool, had a choker collar of brushed cleopatra—I did not publish your let-tor, as it is against the rules to print letters of this nature. You write a very one of the knitted suits made from yel-ne skirt, which also had a fancy girdle

Speaking of Skirt Lengths.
The all-important question of skirt ngths really does not materially affect a suit, for the skirt will remain, ac-cording to the best authorities, about shoe-top length. In other words, about eight to ten inches from the floor. Satin, or velvet may be used, or cheviot and he basket weave fabrics with a velour ombre tones, black being preferable, finish are popular, and as for color, while the strictly tailleur demands the the garments of the sports variety take on the hues of the rainbow and jauntily swagger forth in red, green, grey, yel-low, and bright red, the latter not stop-ping with the sports clothes or sports hats, it has higher aspirations. Red velvet gowns for evening are making their appearance, and it is said by whose social activities take them to the formal dinners and dances, that red velet evening dresses are always in evi-held the center of the stage, the color pendulum has swung to the farther side, and singled out red as a reaction.

some are of the opinion that eventually the longer skirt will be adopted by the American following the French trend, it is doubtful if the vogue will be popular here this season, nor will the semi-fitted

ひじじじじ ひひひひむ ひのの

Infants-Delight-an altogether delightful

Toilet Soap, mild.

fragrant, refreshing

- made with the careful attention

that has earned confidence in the name

"Taylor's" through the past fifty years.

JOHN TAYLOR & CO., LTD.

IT'S WHITE

TOILET SOAP

straight line remains, and whi mishing the waistline.

lged the front of the coat, and trimmed good hand.

WANTS DOUBLE HOLLYHOCK. Dear Miss Grey,-What a beautiful autumn we are having and such an abundance of flowers and no frost as yet. And how the seeds are comming in to help swell the fund. Mine are not quite ready yet. Please send me a package of Aunt Rose's phlox seed, some sweet william seed, salvia and a few castor beans. Mite is for S. C. H. I wonder If any of the Boxites would like to exchange double hollyhock seed with me! I have only one color, a dark red, but It is beauty, as large as a saucer, with a round ball in the center. Will exchange for any color, as long as It is double. My address is with Miss Grey. Please send me A Wife's address, also Five Roses. Thanking you in advance, I remain.

A. C. VINE.
Am mailing you all the seeds aske or except castor beans, and there are dence. It would seem that in order to an sending you A Wife's address, but coat be generally sponsored. Every-thing seen so far, that is everything that has found favor in the line of coat Miss Beatrice Black, eldest daughter of suits, tends to give the human figure a Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Black, was united slender, unbroken slihouette. Mr. King Clendenning, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Clendenning of Banner. The bride wore her traveling suit of navy blue, with hat to match and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. She also wore the gift of the groom, a pearl lavaliere. After the ceremony the bride and groom motored to London, where a buffet luncheon was served at the home of the bride's grand other.

WITH DDINEC

CLENDENNING-BLACK.

The happy couple left later for Windsor and Detroit. After their honeymoon they will take up their residence in

McMULLIN-MEEK.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, Sept. 28, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Meek, Gorham street, Newmarket, Ont., when their only daughter, Anne Gertrude, became only daugnter, Anne Gertrude, became the bride of Mr. Willis B. McMullin, B.S.A., M.C., son of Mrs. Ellen Mc-Mullin, of Blytheswood, Ont., Rev. Capt. W. L. L. Laurence officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in a gown of cream canton crepe with touches of rose point lace. Her veil, an heirloom in the family, was becomingly arranged in coronet fashion and caught with orange blossoms. She carried a beuquet of orchids and ophelia roses, and were the carrier of the ca Ophelia roses, and wore the groom's gift, a necklace of pearls. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Sadie Mc-Bride, of Inglewood, who was attired in orchid organdie, and carried butterfly roses. Mr. Eric Weston of Winder-mere, Ont., was groomsman. The wed-ding music was played by Miss Edwinna Currey of Newmarket, and Miss Sylva Pulford of Amherstburg sang very sweetly, "Beloved it is Morn." The groom's gifts to the attendants were silver coin purses, and to the best man Masonic cuff links. After a dainty dejeuner the happy couple left, amid showers of confetti, for Niagara Falls and points west, the bride traveling in a suit of navy velour with beaver trimmings and hat to match. On their re-turn they expect to reside at Bruce Mines, Ont.

WHEN WEDDING

BELLS RING It is the time for happiness and bliss—and Flowers, speaking a language of their own, aid won-derfully in making the occasion a cheerful one. For the bride's bouquet or decorative purposes here are Flowers you will want.

WEST Floral Co.

Personals WESTERN ONTARIO WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

THE WOMAN'S PAGI

The Misses Masuret and Mrs. Gento are visiting friends in Detroit.

Address News For This Column The Editor of Woman's Page. Mise Dorothy L. Back, 717 Waterloo street, is visiting friends in Montreal.

Mrs. M. W. Bruce has returned home

the week-end with his parents, Mr. and papers were given by Mrs. Buchanan Mrs. B. C. McCann, Central avenue.

Relation of Women in Ontario to Their

Mrs. W. G. Mann will receive for the

Mrs. Cummings, who has been visit ing Miss Nixon, Hellmuth avenue, left for New York yesterday. Miss Nixon was recently the hostess of a most interesting little tea given in honor of

The members of Arts '23, Western University, are holding a class party tonight, beginning with a weiner roast on Becher's Island, below the college grounds, and ending up with a dance and election of the year officers in the arts building.

Miss Kathleen Robbins, an October bride-to-be, was the guest of honor at a delightful little shower given recently by her cousin, Miss Dorothy Gillespie, Oxford street. During the evening a number of miscellaneous gifts were bestowed on the youthful bride-elect.

Mrs. McPetrie. Wellington street, en tertained the Nicholas Wilson Chapter, I. O. D. E., at her home yesterday afternoon, the members spending the time in sewing for their bazaar, which is to be held in November. Next week Mrs. Curtis, William street, is entertaining the chapter.

Mrs. Ed Gould of 910 Lorne avenu In nop. is spending a few days with friends in brightly.

Detroit, and is expected to return to "No on the city tomorrow. Previous to going to Detroit Mrs. Gould attended the fourteenth biennial convention of the London Conference Epworth Leagues, which was held in Chatham last Thurs-

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cake of 913 Lorne avenue have returned home after a very enjoyable visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rose of Sarnia. Before going to Sarnia Mrs. Cake attended the fourteenth biennial convention of the London Conference Epworth Leagues, which was held in Chatham last Thurs. which was held in Chatham last Thursday and Friday.

The Y. W. C. A. residence, Wellington street, presented a happy scene yes-terday afternoon, when the girls' work committee of the Y. W. C. A. entertained there, having as their guest the "Y" board and the leaders of the Port Bruce camp. Marigolds were used abundantly about the rooms and on the tea table, at which Mrs. Tanton officiated, assisted by the 'big chiefs' of the camp, Miss Madeline Roddick, Miss Jean Buchner, Miss Kitty White and the camp librarian, Miss Elva Just. During the afternoon a pleasant interchange of camp reminiscences kept conversation flowing, and several camp leaders spoke to the whole gathering, explaining the worth-whilener of the undertaking, and how it bearing fruit in the girls' work of the community already. Those who spoke were Miss Helen d'Avignon, Mrs. Frank Anderson, Miss Jones, Mrs. John Crawford and Miss Besste Mc-Other camp leaders present were Miss Marion Pryce of St. Th

MISSIONARY DESIGNATED AT MOORELINE CHURCH

A fairly large number of friends of Miss Helen McDougall gathered recent-ly at Mooreline Church to witness her lesignation for foreign mission work. The Rev. J. C. Forster was in charge of the service, J. R. Hall, of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Sarnia, conducting the designation services in the absence of Rev. George Aitken, mod-erator for the district.

Mrs. J. C. Forster, as a representative from the general board of the Wo-men's Missionary Society of Canada, gave a short address, and according to custom, presented Miss Helen McDougall with a Bible. Mrs. Stereet, as a representative of the Sarnia Presbyterial, gave a short address, and presented the missionary with a camera, a gift from that executive. Miss McDougall made a short and suitable reply to these presentations, A solo, "He Stood in His Garden," was ung by Mrs Arthur Elliot

The address of the evening was given by Rev. Dr. McKay, secretary of the oreign Mission Board, his address being very inspiring and instructive.

Of Scotch Descent. Miss McDougali's ancestors come from Scotland and Ireland, and in the early lays helped to found the church where the was recently designated to her work. Miss McDougall herself is a true Canadian, born and educated in this country. She studied in the high schools in Sarnia and Petrolea, and is a grad-uate of Sarnia Business College. While working at the Home Bank in Toronto Miss McDougall became interested in mission work, and studied towards that end for some time at night school. Later she attended the Bible College at Toronto for two years, and has won particular honor for the college in that she is the first graduate to go out under the auspices of the Foreign Mission Board by the Presbyterian Churchs

Leaves Shortly. Under the auspices of this church she will leave from Vancouver on November 28 for Shanghai. She expects to spend the Christmas season in Honan, and later will proceed to Pekin, where she will study the language and customs of the people for a year before she begins active service in the great work to which she has devoted her life.

Some of the new gowns have skirts he instep in length.

The black and steel pouch bags are

Round toed, low French heeled slippers in black suede, French kid, and black and white satin are popular for street and evening wear. Bags for evening are of velvet, flower rimmed and lined with brocaded satin.

Women's Institute was held ecently at the home of Mrs. Harry ongland, 24 members being present. After the business was concluded, two Own Children," and "Home Discipline. The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. George Ryall on regular monthly meeting

EMBRO W. I.

The October meeting of the above
Women's Institute is to be held at the nome of Mrs. H. W. Sutherland on Thursday, October 13, when Mrs. Walter Ross is to give an address.

DORCHESTER W. A.

The Ciris' W. A. of the Anglican Church, Dorchester, is planning a con-cert to be held in the hall on Friday, October 14, when the program will include vocal solos, trios, violin and piano selections and a playlet, entitled, "Our Aunt From California."

COLDSTREAM W. I. The Coldstream Women's Institute will meet this (Tuesday) afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Foresters' Hall in Pop-

At Cupid's Call

By May Christle. (Copyright, 1921, by McClure News-paper Syndicate.)

CI .- Mary's News. Mrs. Dick Calardin descended to the reakfast room of the White Lodge at half-past eight the following morning. From the slim third finger of her eft hand she had-temporarily-renoved her wedding ring.

Eve Rochester and Julian Vandaveer vere in the room before her entry. So also was Mr. Carrington Bellairs and his majestic aunt.
"I hope I'm not late?" said Mary

"No one is punctual in this house," remarked its chatelaine. They all sat down to breakfast.

And then the telephone bell rang.

"Shall I answer it?" suggested Mary.
"I'd better go myself," said Carington Bellairs. "I'm rather expectng a phone call from town about this

He went out to the hall. Three minutes later he returned, oking rather grave. "Been foul play at the Barley Mov the landlord's just rung up," he said oriefly. "They found young Dick Calbriefly. "They found young Dick Cal-ardin lying on the floor unconscious chly half an hour ago. He's delirio shouting for Miss Drew here—" I flung a worried look at Mary. Mary-white-faced and trembling - and risen to her feet.

"Oh, I must go at once!" she cried.
The aunt of Carrington Bellairs cast glance of indignant reproof at the October 25 and 26, includes two lunch

"If anyone must go, then it's Eve, who is Mr. Calardin's affianced wife."

"Oh, I couldn't!" Eve shrank back. 'I'm terrifled of illness, auntie.

-I beg of you-don't insist upon my Mary was half-way across the room

"Miss Drew, where are you going?"
With raised and quizzical brows her employer stared at the young girl. "You've eaten no breakfast at all. Whatever is the matter?"
"I—I have some slight knowledge of nursing," Mary faltered, "and—and you said-that he was calling for me "I don't think you had better go," vas regretting that he'd given Mary any message. "Tm going to telephone to town at once for a good nurse. I'm to town at once for a good nurse. I'm sorry for young Calardin. The landlord of the Barley Mow has informed the police of the occurrence. He thinks that the motive was robbery, for Calardin's sleeping apartment seems to have been thoroughly ransacked."

"He—he isn't going to die" faltered poor Mary, the little bride of yesterday.

day.
"I understand he's badly hurt," came he slow answer. Here Bellairs' aunt once more cu "It would be highly improper, Miss Drew, for you to visit the young man unchaperoned. Besides, the nursing you do would be of very little use!

Carrington Bellairs became considerably nettled with his interfering aunt. She was taking far too much

"Miss Drew-" he began, tentatively It was then that Mary flung he

'I am not Miss Drew any longer, "I'm Mrs. Dick Calardin Dick and I were married yesterday up in town. And—don't try to stop me— for I'm going to my husband!" She darted from the room gazed with anxious eyes into the do tor's face. The doctor and she, helped by the landlady of the Barley Mow, had worked beside Dick for an hour. He was still unconscious, and in pain. "He's had a bad blow to the head," the doctor said. "I would have killed any man with a less strong constitu-tion than this young fellow." He looked at the unhappy, worried little bride. "Mrs. Calardin, we must just hope for the best."

Day after day, then, Mary eat by the bedside of her husband. A nurse from town was also in attendance, and the landlady of the Barley Mow who always had adored Dick-took turns in the night work, at such times as Dick was very ill. A week went by. Two weeks. There were periods when Dick was conscious, but extraordinarily weak. He would lie there, very white and helpless, clinging to his young wife's hand, a very shadow of his former Tomorrow-What Dick Vouched For. The hems of the wide skirts are lined with crinoline having tiny ruffles, pink-ed, to trim the under part of the hem.

Many of the smart women are part-ing their hair, and drawing it down over their ears, without any curls.

Fancy or costumes jewelry is exceedingly popular and is worn with all manner of dresses, whether crepe, cloth, or silk, in the dark shades.

mittee, with Mrs. William Mc-

GIRL GUIDE CAPTAINS.

A meeting of the Girl Guide captain of the season. Plans were made to further instruction in first, aid and nature study, by asking the local Girl Guide committee to furnish instructors

TALBOT STREET M. CIRCLES.

The Rev. M. L. Orchard of Toronto, who spent one term in India and is in connection with the convention are now assistant secretary of the foreign the reception committee, including Mrs mission board of the Baptist Church, will address the thankoffering meeting of the Ladies Mission Circles of the Ladies Mission Circles of the Talbot Street Baptist Church on Wednesday even of this week at 8 o'clock, His subject is "India's Challenge to Canada's People."

The Baptist Church on Wednesday even of the Ladies Mission Circles of the Foley, Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mrs. Walter Costello, Mrs. S. B. Poccok, Mrs. Amero, Mrs. Roche, Mrs. van Loon, Mrs. T. F. Sweeney, Mrs. Richard Forristal, Mrs. T. J. Murphy, Mrs. T. F. Binder and Mrs. McHale: motor committee, including Mrs. Policy Mrs. Policy Mrs. Policy Mrs. Policy Mrs. Amero, Mrs. T. F. Sweeney, Mrs. Van Germittee, with Mrs. William McAler with Mrs. William with Mrs. William with Mrs. William McAler with Mrs. William with Mrs. William with Mrs. William with

"The Challenge" was the subject of most inspiring address delivered yes-T. J. Kiley; billeting committee, Mrs. Joseph Frezell, Mrs. Warcup, Mrs. Frank Forristal, Mrs. Dicknoethner, Mrs. Phillip McGinnis, Mrs. van Loon, terday afternoon before the First Methodist W. M. S. by Dr. Sparling, his address being the feature of the meeting. The appointment of the monthly conveners for the meetings of the year was the only important piece of business of the year was the only important piece of business of the year was the only important piece of business of the year was the only important piece of business of the year was the only important piece of business of the year was t was the only important piece of business undertaken, the conveners being Mrs. H. E. Boomer, Mrs. W. N. Manning, Mrs. W. J. Brown, Mrs. J. A. Coles, Mrs. W. E. Saunders, Mrs. N. A meeting of the Girl Guide S. Williams, Mrs. S. M. Kanada. S. Williams, Mrs. S. M. Kennedy. A of the city, held in the King street Y ocal solo by Miss Luta Laymon was W. C. A. last night, launched the work iso included in the program.

TALBOT ST. BAPTIST M. C. The annual business meeting of the Talbot Street Baptist Women's Mission Circle was held recently. The main feature of the meeting was the election of officers for the ensuing alection of officers for the ensuing alection of officers for the work and make mutual plans for the advance-want of the work in the city.

Guide commutee to the work. The Guide officers of the work. The Guide officers of the city will meet Accompanying Mrs. Betts to Toronto Will be Miss Beth Pennington, the provincial secretary; Mrs. Ernest Smith, the deputy commissioner, and Mrs. Auden, the provincial treasurer.

president, Mrs. Griffiths; president, Mrs. D. H. McDermid; first vice-president, Mrs. Hazelgrove; second vice-president, Mrs. Roy; secretary, Mrs. Jepson; assistant secretary, Mrs. Holland, jun.; treasurer for home missions, Miss C. Jeffery; treasurer for foreign missions, Mrs. Menhenick; treasurer for expense fund, Mrs. A. Gillies; agent for Link, Mrs. R. Hyslop; assistant for Ior Link, Mrs. R. Hysiop; assistant for Link, Mrs. Hudgell; agent for Visitor, Mrs. A. Gillies; assistant for Visitor, Mrs. R. G. Wilson; planist, Mrs. A. Greenslade; assistant planist, Mrs. N. Glen; treasurer for Laura Allyn fund, Mrs. J. W. Jones; press reporter, Mrs. Charles Tomlin.

ABERDEEN MOTHERS' CLUB.

Mrs. John Rose, president of the nion Mothers' Club will address the regular meeting of Aberdeen Mothers' Club to be held at the school on Thurs-day night. October 13, her subject be-"What we owe to our children and what we must expect from ther n." The meeting will largel form of a social evening, an refreshments will be served at the CRONYN MEMORIAL BAZAAR.

The women of the Cronyn Memor hurch are arranging for a big Hallow-en bazaar to be held on November and 2, in the Parish Hall. The corations for this event will be in cordance with the Halloween sea-n, and one of the big features wil be served from 4:30 to 5:30 o'clock to be followed by high tea.

oung girl.

eons at the Tecumsch House on the "Miss Drew, you surely forget yourdays of the convention sessions, and elf," said the good lady in a ringing a motor trip through the city, to be

MRS. H. COCKSHUTT HONORARY PRESIDENT

Will Be Elected by Ontario Girl Guide Executive.

One of the chief pieces of business in connection with the meeting of the Provincial Girl Guide executive to be held in Toronto on Thursday, Octo-ber 13, will be the making of Mrs. Harry Cockshutt honorary president of the Provincial Association, according to Mrs. F. P. Betts of this city, the provincial commissioner, who left last night to preside over that meeting. Mrs. Betts is in Brantford today attending a luncheon given by Mrs. George Watt in honor of Mrs. Harry Cockshutt, and this afternoon two new Brantford patrols of Girl Guides are being enrolled. A very interesting meeting of Guides was recently held at Pickering, and in Kingston the work is going on splendidly. Mrs. Betts says that the greatest difficulty in the progress of the work is the scarcity of leaders, and proposes to have very many leaders' training camps through out the province next year. It is possible that a leaders' class will be started shortly in the city to meet this

So rich, so creamy that it is always soft and may be spread on crackers or bread like butter. It goes a long

"Can be used in a hundred different ways"

Had your iron today?

more raisins

Crepes, Sateens, Brocades

Among Autumn Silk Favorites

Anything crepe looks good for this season, so say the authorities. Among the new offerings there is a wealth of the beautiful soft crepe effects for draped frocks, and of the heavier grades, such as Canton and Satin Crepe for tailored designs.

All Wool Plaid and Stripes for separate skirts, nice heavy quality, in rich shades of brown, tan and blue, 36 inches wide $3.00, $3.50 and $4.50

Botany Serges, good all-wool quality, fine weave, heavy weight and nice soft finish, just the material for ladies' oneiece dresses or ladies' suits, full 56 inches wide; shades of wear, fine weave, heavy weight and a serge that will give the best of wear; shades of navy, brown and green. Price $1.50

Duchess Satins, good heavy weight, Lyons dye, rich satin finish, will give the best of wear and will not cut, just the satin for nice soft dress or separate skirt, full 36 inches wide; shades of navy, black, brown, taupe grey and green. Special $2.50

Silk Crepe de Chine for blouses or dresses, good heavy quality that washes perfectly and give the best of wear, full 40 inches wide, in a large variety of shades $1.98

Silk Canton Crepes, good heavy quality, rich crepe finish, just the material for nice soft dress, full 40 inches wide; shades of navy, black, copen and brown $4.00

Chic Millinery For Formal Affairs

For daytime wear the little hats, the thing beyond peradventure. It may be of the hatters' plush, panne velvet or felt.

Special this week-Children's Plush Hats, new models. Prices $3.50 to $5.00

Silk Velvets in all shades. Per yard $3.00 to $5.00 Price, per pair $2.50

Corsets

The new autumn models are works of art, beautifully designed and finished, achieving an unwonted degree of smartness for the costume of formal or informal design.

New model, super-bone, low bust, free hip, embroidery trimmed, formerly $5.00 per pair.

D. & A. Corset, low bust, free hip, elastic insert, four hose supports. Per pair....$2.00 Extra special-50 pairs New Model, long hip low bust, neatly trimmed. Per pair ...$1.00 Full-Figure Corsets, reinforced front, wide busk steel, four hose supports, sizes up to 36

R. J. YOUNG & CO.

