

Fast Steamers For Skagway

Arrangements Being Made For Faster Steamers For the Northern Route.

Increased Steamship Facilities Planned For Next Season's Business.

There are to be many new steamers on the Lynn annual route next spring when navigation opens in the North and the side of travel and movement of freight companies again. The C. P. N. Co. have promised to improve their service by the addition of fast vessels, of which is to be the Charming. It is said the Pacific Coast Steamship Co. are also to be placed on the route, a representative of the McIvors—according to reports that come frequently from Vancouver—tells of new vessels to be brought around and placed on the northern route by that well-known firm; and now comes a statement from the Washington & Alaska Steamship Company, owners of the steamer City of Seattle, that a new, larger and faster vessel than the last liner is to be placed on the route, the title of travel will go to the fastest of all the transportation companies, are planning improvements in the service to the North.

The Washington & Alaska Steamship Co. propose to make radical changes in their northern service by February 1. Officers of that company state that already a second fast steamer has been secured, which with the City of Seattle will maintain a speedy service, sailing every five days from each terminal. None of the officers of the company are yet willing to announce the name of the new steamer, but they state she will be a little larger than the City of Seattle, and best equipped steamers for 175 first-class and 200 second-class passengers. They are saving accommodations for 175 first-class and 200 second-class passengers. It is also reported that arrangements are being made to purchase the Yukon, a steamer of 1,200 tons, which will be used to make 20 knots a day, and will be used to make 20 knots a day.

RECEPTION.

Marseilles' People Are Eager to Show Their Sympathy in Words. Marseilles, Nov. 22.—Mr. Kruger bore the same welcome extremely well. Many of his friends say he looks in better health than before he left Pretoria. The heavy gate and rough crossings which the Geleerdan encountered in the Mediterranean, however, proved to be the first time he started for Europe he was weak. But Mr. Kruger showed little effects of his seaickness to-day, and at a hearty luncheon. Afterwards he received delegations from various municipalities and societies in the city. He was greeted with a great deal of enthusiasm, and he was very popular. He was a very successful actress, and she was very popular.

UP-TO-DATE STYLES AT WEILER BROS.

Our first consignment of Fall Goods in the Upholstering, Drapery and Curtain line are now on sale, and we can only say that for coloring, artistic effect and value we have surpassed ourselves in these last purchases. For the year 1899 these cows had produced 12,900 pounds of butter. He drew from the merchant in Nanaimo that year for the butter $2,980.37 up to Oct. 31 of the present year; 37 cows had produced 12,191 pounds of butter. At the same average, 37 cows will, before the end of the year, produce 2,000 pounds more. Mr. Urquhart has sold this year hogs to the amount of $600, and has the value of $300 more on hand. This result has been obtained on the cultivation of 110 acres of land. He buys yearly about $200 worth of bran; this he feeds to his cows, and the result is the best milk strain, the temperature for obtaining separators, best and most approved moulds, the quantity of salt to each pound of butter, etc. He took his seat on the chairman's table called on Mr. Thos. Earl, president of the horticultural association, who gave valuable hints in putting up fruit in all classes of farm products, and the carelessness in roging in this province in handling fruit for shipment. He claimed that British Columbia raises the finest fruit grown in any part of Canada, and that most carelessly handled. He urged co-operation to secure living freight rates on the export of all classes of farm products. After passing a vote of thanks to the three speakers, the meeting adjourned.

A PARRICIDE.

A Bavarian Beats His Father to Death With a Shovel. Washington, Nov. 23.—The state department to-day issued a warrant for the surrender to the German officials of Johann Bauer, now held under arrest at New York, charged with murdering his father at Munich, Bavaria. The allegations show that the father, a shoemaker, having signified his purpose to marry again, thus cutting off the children's inheritance, the son, advised with his sister, decided to make away with his father. One morning he went into the fields and dug a hole, then he laid back and informed his sister that he had prepared a grave for the old man. When the father returned, his son beat him to death with a shovel, put his body in a sack, loaded it into a wagon and carried it out and buried it in the place he had prepared. Then Bauer fled to the United States, where he was arrested on the confession of his sister.
