

COURTESIES NOT EXTENDED.

(To the Editor of the Farmer.)

Sir—Although I have no doubt that the few people who read the Capital can readily see the motive which prompts its editor to attack the Capital on the very important matter of two dead-head tickets, yet I suppose it would be as well for me to take some notice of the matter, especially when a man indulges in such fabrications and insinuations.

In the last issue he expresses very kindly his sorrow at not receiving two tickets for the Minister performance. The only truth contained in that paragraph, is that he did not receive the tickets; the rest of it contains a tissue of lies. When Mr. Orophey talks about jealousy or spite, he places himself in a ridiculous light; the jealousy and spite are on the other side, as any one can readily see who read that notice in his last issue. I have no doubt it is hard to be forced to go out of the Book and Stationery business, and as "drowning man will grasp at a straw," I presume Mr. Orophey will now more desperately than ever clutch at the Capital, if he can, whenever any trifling opportunity presents itself. I tried to smooth the worthy Editor's mind in a personal interview, but his mind had reached such an excited state that he was not capable of listening to reason. As by my begging him not to ventilate the matter in the Capital, I had given him too much to do, I thought it best to let him alone. He was too fussy for anything, and to be modestly polite to an unwarranted lie. I sent the Editor of the Capital a communication for insertion in last Saturday's issue, relating to the matter, as he desired me to do, stating that he intended to publish the correspondence, but he evidently found that its insertion would place him in such a ridiculous light, that he did not even refer to it, but on the other hand, he has been very kind to me in his explanation. The whole affair is too absurd and trivial for further notice. Suffice it to say, for Mr. Orophey's benefit, that in distributing free tickets, I am governed altogether by circumstances, and that this is a matter which rests entirely with myself, but, perhaps, in the Capital, it would be well to make a special provision for Mr. Orophey, so that he may occasionally see the inside of the City Hall.

Now don't waste your powder any more, Captain, as you may want it all, and if you should devote a whole page of paper to this matter again, I really cannot give it any further attention. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space, I remain, Yours very truly,

W. T. H. FENYX.
Fredericton, April 3, 1880.

Down and Country.

Mr. Wm. Deneb died very suddenly at Margerville, Monday morning.

Mr. W. S. Garfield will have his laundry moved for business about 1st May.

Rev. J. H. Coy has organized a Reformed Baptist church at Lower Hayesville.

J. Darley Harrison and Arthur Akeley are from McGill College.

The Normal School students have raised $500 to purchase the nucleus of a library.

Frederick Villiers, the war correspondent, is to lecture in the City Hall April 15th.

Miss Ada Donald of Penikese, after refusing food for 25 days, died at her home Friday.

Mr. Edward Jack will lecture on Newfoundland in the Old Kirk, Friday evening.

Dr. E. Morehouse, of Gile, has graduated in medicine at McGill College, Montreal.

No reserved seats at the Sacred Concert to-morrow night. All lovers of music should attend.

Mr. Fred. B. Edgcombe wants a smart salesman, several young ladies, and a boy to learn the business.

At Durham, New Brunswick, Saturday, Daniel Hanson's house and barn, with their contents, were destroyed by fire.

The speeches of Mr. Wilson and Dr. Moore, M. P. for York, on the franchise bill, will be found on our first page.

See Theo. W. Smith's advertisement of Gen's and Youth's ready-made clothing. They are the best value in the market.

The Fredericton Brass Band will play some very beautiful sacred selections at the concert in the City Hall to-morrow evening.

Major Deakin and his wife will be here to lead the meetings in the Salvation Army barracks on Saturday evening, Sunday and Monday next.

D. D. Gleason & Son have launched a new tug boat the Hero, for service on the river towing logs. She was built at Portland, St. John.

The programme for the Sacred Concert in the City Hall to-morrow night, which we publish elsewhere is an excellent one. Don't fail to hear this Concert.

The billing the York Municipal Council authority to assess $300 annually for Victoria hospital, has passed the legislature. Its promoter was Mr. Wilson.

J. C. Risteen & Co. manufacture every description of sashes, doors and blinds, and keep constantly on hand dressed lumber of every description. See ad.

Mr. Harry Beckwith has our thanks for late copies of the London Times, Mr. N. A. Cliff for Florida papers, and Mr. Geo. H. Marshall for New York papers.

Miss Florence Barker, formerly of Woodstock, a young lady well known in Fredericton, was married recently at White Sulphur Springs, Montana, to Elijah Edwards.

Robert Elliott, employed in Brown & Palmer's tannery, was caught in the belting Friday and had his arm badly lacerated and torn, besides receiving other injuries.

At the communion service of St. Paul's church Sunday, sixteen new members were admitted. Rev. Mr. Moore was assisted in the service by Rev. Mr. Moore of Harvey.

H. H. Allen has made arrangements this year for the purchase of a very large quantity of hard and soft coal, which he will supply to his customers on the most reasonable terms.

Miss Ada Schleyer has started a conservatory on Charlotte street, and is now ready to supply cut flowers at reasonable rates. She has a rare collection of beautiful plants in all varieties.

City Marshall Wheeler will not be a candidate for reappointment and his successor will be selected May 1st. Among the applicants for the position are James Roberts and John E. Parks.

The last regular meeting of the Curling Club this season will be held at the rink this evening, when an important change will be proposed in the bye laws. Every member should be present.

The water meters must go. The City Council last night by a vote of seven to two, decided to dig them up after May 1st. The rates were Alda. Parker and McKay. Alda. McKay was absent.

The British North American Stamp Co. pays the following prices for old N. B. Stamps: 25 cts. for 34, 75 cts. for 61, and 85 cts. for 100. J. A. WILKINSON, P. O. Box 320, Fredericton.

At midnight Friday, some person or persons entered Howard & Grange's premises by a rear window, and stole $3 in cash from the drawer and four boxes of cigars. The police are on the track of the suspects.

A new plate glass front has been added to A. Lottin's shoe store, and the appearance of the building is thereby very materially improved. O. H. Thomas & Co.'s great furnishing store is to have a similar addition.

In the police court Friday, the case against P. B. Coleman for a third offence under the Scott Act, was further adjourned until to-morrow morning. Judgment in the Edgworth and Griener case was also deferred until that time.

A sad case of poisoning occurred here Thursday night, the victim being a twelve year old girl, Jane Waters, of Kewville, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Jones. She had been unwell for some time and by mistake took a teaspoonful of carbolic acid. Medical aid was summoned, but too late to save her life.

Mr. Thomas Stanger, merchant tailor, is today added to the large and constantly increasing list of the FARMER'S patrons. Mr. Stanger has imported a splendid stock of cloths for the spring and summer trade and will make them up to order in the neatest style. His assortment of genteel furnishings, goods, trunks, etc., are worthy of inspection and purchase.

Prof. Stanger of the University, occupied the lecture platform of St. Dunstan's Hall Sunday evening, his subject being "A lesson taught by Irish Nationalism." O. E. Duffy presided, and Hon. R. J. Ritchie, Hon. F. G. Ryan, Mr. Morrissey, M. P. for Alder, Mr. Farrell and Moore, Postmaster McKee and J. A. McFarlane occupied seats on the platform.

The lecturer, who spoke to a large audience, was frequently applauded. The next lecture of the course will be delivered by John L. Garrison of St. John, subject, "Grassroots of Civilization."

Dairymen, or others in New Brunswick, who may be desirous of attending the convention of Dairymen at Ottawa, on the 9th April, will be entitled to reduced rates on the Atlantic Coast, if they will be filled in by ticket agent at starting point, may be had by addressing W. W. Hubbard, Cor. of the United States, reaching every Bangor, at prices which are paring and almost ruining the trade of the butchers. The case is just the contrary in this city, the butchers for some reason or other, have raised the price of beef to such a figure that they are paring their customers.

Nearly a quarter of a century ago, Michael Sullivan left Springfield, to seek his fortune in the Western States. After considerable wandering, he finally settled in Denver, Col. His folks, who now reside in Woodstock, were greatly surprised to have him visit them a short time ago, more especially as his aged mother was very sick. He returns home to Denver in a few days.

John H. Fleming, now with J. J. Weddall, dry goods, is going into the furniture business on the 1st of May, in the store at present occupied by D. Lucy. Mr. Fleming is a popular young man and will no doubt be successful in his new venture. Mr. Weddall is leaving Mr. Weddall's employment, and is going to the United States, where he will be in the employ of a complimentary address and a very handsome salary.

At the regular weekly meeting of St. Dunstan's T. A. Society, Rev. J. C. McDevitt, spiritual director, the following officers were installed for the ensuing term: President, P. B. McGarrigle; 1st Vice President, Jas. P. Farrell; 2nd Vice President, W. McGarrigle; Secretary, J. A. O'Brien; Treasurer, P. H. McGarrigle; Librarian, Geo. K. Perkins; Clergy, at large, Edward Ryan.

Nelson Campbell is receiving his spring stock, consisting of ladies' gentlemen's and children's Boots and Shoes of latest styles, but, perhaps, in the Capital, it would be well to make a special provision for Mr. Orophey, so that he may occasionally see the inside of the City Hall.

Now don't waste your powder any more, Captain, as you may want it all, and if you should devote a whole page of paper to this matter again, I really cannot give it any further attention. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space, I remain, Yours very truly,

One of the attractions in a cheap circus that showed at Albany the other day was a large baboon, that proved very interesting to a lot of little dandies. From the time he fell to teasing the baboon, and were having great fun, when the big monkey, worried beyond endurance, grabbed a brick and flung it at one particularly screaming negro boy. The baboon's aim was good, his strength great, and the brick hitting the boy behind the ear, knocked him senseless. For a long time it was thought he was killed, but he got over it.
