The Litta concert company inaugurated their season last evening at Central music hall under flattering auspices. The fact of the popularity of M'lle Litta was attested by the sign of "Standing Room Only" being exposed early in the evening. A large and fashionable audience testified their approval of the prima donna and her coadjutors in frequent applause.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

Rev Father O'Reilly of Leslieville arrived home yesterday from his European trip, looking hale and hearty, and was met by a deputation of his numerous friends of Leslieville, but his arrival was saddened by the announcement that he had been transferred to a parish near Owen Sound. However a requisition will be made to the arch-bisnop by his flock of Leslieville praying that he shall be allowed to continue in their midst. The audience that greeted the Harrisons and company at the Grand last night was not so large as a more propitious weather would have guaranteed them. The comedy-drama Viva, in which they structed to display the peculiar merits of the Harrisons, and as such was all that was necessary. The plot is briefly one which is set to mark the difficulties which beset a pair of itinerant Italian musicians, who are impersonated by the Harrisons. Songs, dances and characteristic instances are introduced, and these are so well performed as to draw out the most enthusiastic applause of te audience. The most enthusiastic applause of the most enjoyable talmment they provide is of the most enjoyable talmment they provide is of the most enjoyable mature. The company furnishes excellent support in the drama part of the play, and the whole is run off in pe fect harmony. They appear to-night in our infant. Police Court Notes.

In the police court yesterday Elizabeth Bowes pleaded guilty to feloniousl wounding William Brown in a house in Emma stseet. Brown lies in a dangerous condition in the hospital, and pending his recovery or otherwise the plea was not accepted. Wm Thompson stale W G Thompson's watch and pleaded guilty, but elected to be tried by a jury. Allie Miller, charged with keeping a house of disorder, will be called again to answer on December 27. David Evans and John Henry, hald on charge of burglary at the residence of Mr. Codson at Richmond and Duncan streets, were turther remanded till December 27. James McGaffan was sent to jail until December 28. He had threatened to stab his wife. A dozen snow cases were disposed of.

Ald. William Sheppard is again in the field for this ward, and as his record during the past year was satisfactory to the electors of the ward and the city generally, it is likely that he will head the polls on January 1. His friends are pushing his canvass.

FATHER WHO IS THE "DOOK" OF MANCHESIER?

The duke, my son, is one of those good kind men who live only for one object—to benefit their fellow-beings, a sort of maissionary among men. You know, my son, in Old England there are "teeming millions, sons of toil," who are cramped and crowded into the small space that little England affords, and limbs the river at Columbus, Ohio. was intended to buy $15,000,000 of the chromos, and thus you see the good duke was doing a great kindness for Jim Hill by buying so many chromos. And the duke, my son, came across the ocean, and travieled all the way to Pile-O'-bones enduring great hardships in Jim Hill's car, and having to drink chang great and eat boned turkey between stations, and the stations are far a part on that line.

And, father, does the dook give all his time to the great North-West by West company?

No, my son, he has retired and takes no more interes: as chairman—it was such a strain on his great mind.

Well, father, who will look after the interests of the discovery of important papers during the domiciliary visit to his house. It is said the papers prove his complicity in various anarchic movements in French territory.
