THE DOUBLE LIABILITY, other Dreary Day at the Hall before

who object to the double liability. The first case heard was that of Alfred Boulthee, 35 shares and a double liability of $2500.

Mr. Scott, Q.C., appeared on his behalf and dimitted that his client had held 25 shares as no original shareholder, but urged that he had been served them in two lots of twenty and five shares to Robert Cochran within thirty lives of the suspension of the bank. Counsel asked that the case be not decided until after those of Robert Cochran, Gzowski & Buchan, J. D. Henderson and Cox & Co, are disposed of. The application was granted.

Robert Beatty & Co., *ilability was next considered. This is 10 shares and double liability of $1000. The claim, successfully held, was that the shares had been transferred to Cox & Co. Judgment accordingly.

The case of Robert Cochran was adjourned for further evidence. He is down for 75 shares and double liability of $7500.

In the case of a shareholder named Laurie, Mr. J. K. Kerr, Q.C., and Mr. Greelman appeared on his behalf, and asked to amend their objections. Leave was granted, the case to be tried after that of Stanner.

In the case of a shareholder named Laurie, Mr. J. K. Kerr, Q.C., and Mr. Greelman appeared on his behalf, and asked to amend their objections. Leave was granted, the case to be tried after that of Stanner.

A. W. Charrick, for whom Dr. McMichael, Q.C., and Mr. A. Hoskin, Q.C., appeared, was placed on the list for 10 shares.

The cases of John Donagh and Joseph Oliver, for whom Mr. Shebley appeared, were adjourned till Monday. It was admitted that they held 5 shares each, but pleaded that on Oct. 31.

1887, they transferred their shares to Cashier Allen "in trust."

These shares were originally held by Rev. P. J. Harrold, who acquired six of them from Mr. Allen "in trust."

The case of Thos. H. Bull, 5 shares, who did not appear to claim relief, was adjourned till to-day.

Brooklyn and Saburban.

New YORK, May 8.—Ante-post betters have had a busy time of it during the past week, first in obtaining information about the doings of their respective favorites, and then in getting anything like a fair price against them from the bookmakers. The several choices have been backed down to riduculously small figures, and in one book's Suburban list four horses have "full" marked opposite their names. Three of these animals, Aurelia, Ben All and Hidalgo, belong to the same stable—that of Mr. B. A. Haggin.

In the Brooklyn Handicap the larger books are closed on Dunboyne, Hanover and Saxony, though small local and out of town lists. The ralling prices against the horses eligible to start in the two big handicaps are as follows:

Douglas Campbell Gordon,

Aged 5 years and 9 months.

Drowned at Port Perry, May 6, 1881.

A Friday night all dark and wet,
The heavy rain fast falling.

A fluttring gray bird strives to get
Thro' window pane,
Away from rain,
To where the light is calling.

A little boy with wonder sees
The poor wee birdle beating.
His father then, the child to please,
The window lifts,
From darksome rifts
The bird the child is meeting.

Now, Sunday comes, bright day of rest,
Death's angel, sure, is sleeping.
But ere the sun sinks in the west
The child has found,
Ah! blessed sound,
The Light—where's rain nor weeping.
