The Weekly Review.

The wholesale trade is featureless this week. Business is seasonably quiet, prices steady and unchanged. It is not thought that the impending elections will seriously interfere with business, but not much improvement is anticipated till after they are over. In the meantime the outlook continues good. Travelers' orders are more satisfactory than a year ago and stocks decidedly lighter. Payments fair.

DRUGS.

Trade fair. Opium, morphine, glycerine are easier. Oils bergamot, lemon, orange and insect powder are firm. Quinine is very low. Citric acid is dearer and cream tartar advancing in foreign markets. Canary and hemp seeds are easier. Payments fair.

LEATHER AND HIDES.

A fair trade is doing in sole leather, and considerable quantities are going forward to the English market. There is a good demand for buff and splits, but harness leather continues slow. Stocks are only moderate and prices are being well maintained. There is no change in hides.

GROCERIES.

There is little to note this week. Business is seasonably quiet and the markets generally steady. Sugars firm and quoted outside from ⅛c to ¼c higher. Teas firm and advancing, low grades being from 5c to 6c per lb. higher. Canned goods quiet and steady. Fruits in good demand and firm. There is very little doing in coffees. Payments fair.

DRYGOODS.

Travelers are meeting with a fair measure of success, and compared with a year ago business is much better. Orders are largely for prints, printed sateens, British dress materials, checked dress goods, sowed embroideries, belts and passementerie trimmings. Staples are also selling well. The demand for flannelets exceeds the supply. The cutting of prices last year led to a reduction in the output. The cotton mills are reported well supplied with orders and prices rule firm. Spring importations are arriving and the trade are preparing to fill customers' orders. Payments up to date have been satisfactory.

HARDWARE.

There is no distinguishing feature in trade this week. Prices have been fluctuating somewhat on the metal exchanges in London and New York, but it has had little effect here. Latest advices quote everything firm with the exception of copper, which if anything favors buyers. Stocks tin plates are being rapidly reduced in Canada and there is every indication of higher prices ruling towards end of month. It is not anticipated that the elections will have any perceptible effect on business as spring trade is fairly opened out. It is expected that the volume of trade the coming spring will be fully equal to that of last year. Payments fairly good.

Business Embarrassments.

J. J. Zealand, hardware, Milton, reported to be financially embarrassed.

The sheriff is in possession of the business of W. Reardon, broom manufacturer, Ottawa.

John Moffatt, boots and shoes, has secured a compromise.

These assignments are reported: Hamilton Industrial Works; F. Sabourn, butcher Alexandria; A. N. Reid, drygoods, Belleville; W. H. Burris, woolen manufacturer, Lyn; Taylor, Son & Co., hygienic foods, Montreal.

Attwood, of Petrolea, stationery and fancy goods, amounting to $3529, was sold to James Calvert at 45c. The stock of C. R. Oaten, gents' furnishings, amounting to $4402, was sold to E. Brophy at 51c.
