FIFTEENTH YEAR

TO ABOLISH THE LORDS' VETO

ALLOWING THEM ONLY TO AMEND BILLS THE LIBERAL PROGRAM

Gladstone's Resignation May Come This Week—If it Does a New Party Will Be Organized—Program of the Session When Opens on Thursday—Devotion to the Anarchists.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—Next week will probably settle the question of the general election and the retirement of Mr. Gladstone. Everybody expects a crisis of some sort and some surprising rumors are current. The most interesting one, and it comes from a high official source, is that the Duke of Devonshire's opposition to Lord Salisbury in the House of Lords Friday is the first step towards a new combination. Assuming that Mr. Gladstone will retire, Lord Rosebery is to detach himself from the Conservatives and to reorganize the Liberal party. This would mean three parties in the House—Conservatives, Liberals and probably a combination of Radicals and Home Rulers. It is an interesting scheme, possible but hardly probable. The political situation is more critical than it has been since Chamberlain's last destruction of Gladstone. The arrangements are pretty sure to include big surprises.

Program for the Session

The Cabinet prepared at the meeting yesterday the Queen's speech, and decided at the same time on the order in which the government measures will be introduced at the next session. This requires of the government, determined on: Registration Reform, Irish Evicted Tenants, Welsh Disendowment, Local Option, The Militia's financial questions which will arise from the Budget deficit and the simultaneous increase of naval expenditure which will fall out of the program, which bids fair to be voluminous enough to protect the Budget. The order of the program will undoubtedly include the popular movement to abolish them. Nevertheless the whole Liberal party while not sharing the eagerness of the Radicals for immediate action, have now determined that the following statement is the most vital and urgent issue of the hour.

To Reform the Peers

The Speaker this week broached a plan which was suggested by several Liberal Ministers and is approved by many Liberal Members. The plan is as follows: The power of the House of Lords to veto bills passed by the House of Commons shall cease. The House of Lords may continue to review and suggest amendments to any bill which is introduced, but when a bill is amended shall be returned by them to the Commons for decision. The House of Lords shall be final in the event that the peers absolutely reject a bill sent up by the Commons, the Lower House may proceed with the measure by resolution and thus override the rejection of the Upper House. There are five members in Mr. Gladstone's Cabinet, and none of them would support a measure to overthrow the Upper House. Three of them, however, were prepared to stand by their claim to be members of the House of Lords.

The Ministers in Question are the Earl of Rosebery, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs; Lord Lansdowne, Secretary of State for India; and the Earl of Kimberley, Secretary of State for the Colonies.

The Chronicle's attitude in regard to the Employers' Liability and Local Government bills has aroused a strong feeling of opposition to his course on the part of the Queen and the Prince of Wales.

The Reigning Family, The Chronicle adds, always takes a keen interest in the affairs of the Queen and the Prince of Wales, and more than once has exerted its influence to prevent the Press from engaging in a conflict which might injure and in totally re-adjusting the constitution.

Devonshire on the Anarchists

The Duke of Devonshire spoke Friday at a distribution of prizes to volunteers in the cause of the Boer war. He said that England was again face to face with conditions similar to those in which the volunteer movement originated. A number of brave men had come to England and abused the country's hospitality. They utilized English liberty to hatch their nefarious and atrocious plots against the institutions of their own country. Who could say that some of their outrages against Government were not the result of a desire to obtain the same rights which prevailed in France in 1859?

Trolley-Block Line at the Falls

NIAGARA FALLS, Feb. 25.—Characters have been asked from the New York State Legislature to build two bridges across the falls for use of trolley lines. The Clifton and Drummondville Street Railroad is to be converted into a trolley line and the bridge is to be built at the back of the scheme are the men applying for the charter. It is estimated that the bridge will cost about $200,000. It is the intention of the company to eventually have an electric line on both sides of the river. The Niagara Falls and Suspension Bridge Railroad and perhaps the proposed Niagara Falls and Northern will be used on this side, and on the other side the company will put in an electric plant and extend its tracks north to the wharf. It is also intended to build a branch Port Dalhousie and run a line of steamers to Toronto. The second bridge will be built at the wharf, thus completing the belt line. The two bridge bills are likely to be hard fought in the Legislature.

Everything Will Be Proved, Says Mr. Dan PARADISE

PARADISE, Cal., Feb. 24.—R. G. Dun, President of the Mercantile Agency Association, arrived at Pasadena about a week ago. He said that he had not seen him since he was released on bail. He said that he had not seen him since he was released on bail.

Wiman Has Done No Wrong

Mr. Wiman will be called up on Monday to plead to an indictment for forgery in the second degree. He has not permitted anyone to ask whether he will plead guilty or not, but his friends say he has been settled since his release, that he will plead not guilty.

After his discharge on bail, Mr. Wiman was clothed with Gen. B. Tracy, who subsequently made the following statement:

I have seen for the first time to-day the indictments against Mr. Wiman, and the facts upon which the indictments are founded. I am entirely satisfied after reading the indictments that Mr. Wiman has committed no crime. Unless I am greatly mistaken the trial will develop a state of facts which will show that Mr. Wiman is not only a criminal, but has done nothing that can seriously reflect upon his honor or integrity as a man.

WHERE IS JOHN CONNORS?

His Friends Fear He Has Met With Some Accident. Mrs. Connors of 42 Essex-street, Toronto Junction, is anxious to find her son, John, aged 23, who wandered away some days ago and has not since been seen.

Connors was a painter by trade and for five years past has been employed with Mr. George Vallant, 58 Barton-avenue. On Jan. 30 Connors told his mother that it was a fine day. This was the last his friends have seen or heard of him. He had no reason, his friends say, for leaving home. His sister, Mrs. Furse, states that for some time past he had been subject to fits of despondency, brought on, she thinks, by excessive drinking. She fears that he wandered away under the influence of one of these fits of despondency and probably has met some untimely end.

Connors is 5 feet 5 inches, rather stout, fair or almost sandy complexion, dark hair, blue eyes, and had 25 cents in his pocket.

CHANGES IN THE MINING LAW LIKELY TO BE MADE. An Attempt to Induce the Government to Consent to the Issuance of Preference Shares—Arguments For and Against the Plan.

The mining interests of the Province of Ontario, which is not inappreciated by the Dominion Government, are undoubtedly very large, and within comparatively a few miles of this city vast possibilities for skilled research, and resulting wealth, unquestionably exist.

These facts are more or less vaguely known to the reading and reflecting public; but the genuine magnitude of these very mineral resources and the prosperity which would result from the thorough and systematic development of them have not, as yet, really penetrated the minds of our capitalist merchants and citizens in general. Were it otherwise, certainly we could not so vastly different state of affairs in the northern sections of the Province.

But ignorance as to the wonderful extent of our mineral wealth is alleged to be not the only trouble in the way of securing the proper and speedy development of these regions. Those interested in this question complain, and as far as can be seen, with good justification, that the laws of Ontario are all that they should be, and that as they now exist they are a positive bar to prosperity in this quarter. Lack of knowledge on the part of capitalists is but a slight obstacle. The general public will never take a wide interest in these matters.
