

Virginibus puerisque canto.—HORACE. Lib. iii. Ode I.

A

QUARTETTE OF LOVERS.

We will live, my love, and play,
Let grey beards wag as wag they may ;
Suns that set repair their light,
Our brief day has one long night.

—GOLDWIN SMITH'S Bay Leaves.

Love various minds does variously inspire.

—DRYDEN.

JOHN ALLISTER CURRIE.

TORONTO: WILIAMSON & CO.
1892.