

THE CANADIAN HORTICULTURIST

CONTENTS FOR MARCH

The Coreless Apple (illustrated).....	91
Co-operative Spraying by Growers (illustrated).....	93
Growers Must Be Prepared to Spray.....	94
New Brunswick Fruit Growers Organize.....	94
Pruning Cherry Trees.....	95
Spraying for San Jose Scale.....	95
Importations of Vegetables.....	96
New York Fruit Growers.....	97
Another Testimony for Spraying.....	97
The Ontario Fruit Experiment Station.....	98
Spraying Against Black Rot.....	101
Strawberry Culture.....	102
Berry Bushes in the Orchard.....	103
Dry Sulphur for Rot.....	103
Diseases of the Grape.....	104
Grape Pruning.....	105
The Home of a Horticultural Enthusiast (illustrated).....	105
Plant Improvement by Hybridization.....	108
Banana Growing at the Guelph College (illustrated).....	110
Where Flowers Bloom in Winter (illustrated).....	111
A Provincial Vegetable Growers' Association.....	114
Fertilizers for Early Tomatoes.....	115
Early Cucumbers in a Cold Frame (illustrated).....	116
Fertilizers for Tomatoes.....	117
Editorials.....	118
Selling Canadian Fruit in Great Britain.....	120
The Prospects for Early Vegetables.....	121
Fruit Transportation Matters Discussed.....	121
Price of Tomatoes and Corn.....	121
The Horticultural Societies are Active.....	122