PHILATELIC FRAUDS. —We are not in favor with the idea of putting collectors' names on the black list. Many get their names there on very slight offences which certainly do not warrant such action. It is of importance, however, that stamp thieves should be exposed; likewise advertising deadbeats. This latter class is becoming a curse to philatelic publishers. We have accounts against several firms and dealers which must be settled at once. If they are not satisfactorily settled before Feb. 10th, we will make their names public through the columns of this paper.

HELP WANTED. —We want your help to make this paper a decided success in the coming year. A subscription or advertisement would help us wonderfully. If you receive a copy of this number as a "sample copy," look it over and see if it is not worth the subscription price,—twenty cents a year.

NONE LEFT. —Several have written requesting a copy of Volume 1, No. 2. This No. is very scarce, as the number printed was small, and every copy was mailed. They are valued by the publisher at twenty cents each. For every copy returned in good condition a year's subscription will be given.

COMBINATION OFFER.—The Herald Exchange, New York Philatelist, and Stamp Reporter, for one year, 45cts.
