

A $2.50 Book Gratis

The publishers of THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE make, on the following page, this splendid offer to new and old subscribers. The editor has promised to back them up in the venture, and to give to the readers of Canada's national magazine better things to read and better things to look at than ever before. He has already arranged for special and regular contributions from a number of the best Canadian writers, and the illustrations will be a big advance on former years.

THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE gets first chance at the best things in Canada. Why? Because it is dignified and is regarded as the literary standard of the Dominion.

A History of the War of 1812

Almost 100 years ago the United States attempted to take Canada.

Do you know why and how they failed?

Every Canadian should know.

The book entitled "A History of the War of 1812," by James Hannay, D.C.L., gives the best account of that most interesting and significant struggle.

It is published by Morang & Company, Toronto, and sells at $2.50 a copy. The binding is of the same material as issued in the de luxe edition of "The Makers of Canada" series. It is printed on heavy coated paper and contains more than sixty illustrations.

The edition is limited, so order early, as orders will be filled in rotation.