ATTERNATIONAL LIQUOR CURE Co.

ARETHEMEN,—It affords me much pleasure to testifut to the benefits I have received from the International Cure. For five years I have had such an applicit for strong drink, as to be at times uncontrolable. For two months previous to June 18, 1892, I can safely say I had not been sober one day. With three weeks of your treatment all this has been elanged. I have no desire for liquor at all. I have suffered weeks of your treatment all this has been elanged. I have no desire for liquor at all. I have suffered no inconvenience or bad effects. I grew better from the first day—my appetite good, my sleep satural. This great change is the wonder of my filends and acquaintences. I earnestly recommend any one suffering from the drink habit to go to the laternational Institute, 337 King Street West, Toronto.

Important Books

Bond-Holders and Bread-Winners.

By S. S. King, Esq. A startling picture of political crimes committed in the name of Liberty. Facts and figures from the Eleventh Census, with maps and illustrations. Massachusetts enabled to accumulate more wealth than nine great Western and Southern States. Pennsylvania more than twelve. New York more than fifteen. Agriculture and labor robbed. Price, 25 cents, sent postpaid.

Is This your Son. My Lord?

Powerful Realistic Romance. By Helen Garderer, author of "A Thoughtless Yes," Men. Women, and Gods," Etc. This is probably the most fearless and terrible expose of conventional immorality and hypocrisy ever written. 23,000 copies sold in ten menths. It is a book for teachers of youth. A fine portrait of the author forms a frontispiece. Price, paper 50 cents; cloth

The Irresistible Conflict between Two World Theories.

By REV. MINOT J. SAVAGE. This work, which was suggested by Dr. Lyman Abbott's recent lectures on the "Evolution of Christianity," is unquestionably the most powerful presentation of the views held by evolutionary thinkers in the religious world that has ever appeared. Price, postpaid, paper 50 cents; cloth, $1.00.

Jason Edwards.

An Average Man. By Hamlin Garland, author of "A Spoil of Office," "Main-Travelled Roads,"

Etc. This powerful story depicts with startling fidelity the real life of the artisan and farmer to-day; a terrible picture of the unequal struggle of the poor for bread and roof. This story is rich in sunshine and shadows. Price, cloth-$1.00; paper so cents.

An Interrogation. By Prop. Emil Blum and Signund Alexander. This is one of the boldest, most radical, and realistic works of the decade. It is as unconventional as it is unique, and will unquestionably call forth hostile criticisms in quarters where its shafts enter. In religion and ethics it is radical. In politics, strongly socialistic. In literature it is extremely realistic. In general, bold, frank, and truthful. Price, paper 50 cents.

Main-Travelled Roads.

Six Mississippi Valley Stories. By Hamin Garland, author of "Jason Edwards," Etc. These stories give the most vivid pictures of Western life among the farmers ever written. Mr. Garland has been justly termed the lbsen of America. Price, paper 50 cents; clath, St.oo.

Lessons Learned from Other Lives.

By B. O. Flower, editor of the Arena, with portrait of the author. This volume contains short biographical sketches of fourteen eminent personages, written specially for the young, in a manner as fascinating as fiction, while necessarily proving very instructive. Price, paper 50 cents; cloth

Any of the above sent postpaid on receipt of price.
