Mercantile Summary.

SOME days ago, the dry goods section of the Toronto Board of Trade decided to send out circulars to retail merchants in respect to fire insurance on their stocks. The difficulties arising from the renewal of old policies, as has been the custom in Canada, are so great that it is suggested that a completely new policy be made out every year, as is done throughout the United States.

THE Grenfell, N.W.T. Board of Trade has been reorganized, and officers whose names follow, elected: C. J. Rosborough, president; H. Coy, vice-president; C. R. Hogan, secretary-treasurer; council, J. W. Jones, John Walker, E. Fitzgerald, R. A. Copeland, E. A. Walker, J. W. McDonald, B. P. Richardson and R. B. Taylor. The board will devote much attention to the encouragement of immigration.

It is announced in The Ontario Gazette that Wm. Mackenzie and Donald D. Mann, contractors; Z. A. Lash, K.C., Ernest W. McNeill, solicitor's clerk; all of Toronto, and Roderic J. Mackenzie, contractor, Winnipeg, have been incorporated as Mackenzie, Mann & Co., limited, with a share capital of $5,000,000; headquarters at Toronto. They will acquire in whole or part the business of Mackenzie, Mann & Company, Toronto, and the assets thereof, and assume in whole or part the liabilities thereof; contract for, construct, execute and carry on all descriptions of works, and generally carry on the business of contractors; to acquire, hold and dispose of the bonds, debentures, and other securities and stocks of other corporations; promote and assist financially, by guarantees or otherwise, the enterprises and undertakings of other corporations; and acquire and dispose of, develop and utilize lands, water privileges, and search for and develop minerals and mines.

THE failure is announced of Eugene Audet, who began store-keeping at St. Anne du Sault, Que., more commonly known as Maddington Falls, two years ago; creditors will wind up the estate; he owes $4,500.—O. Ragotte was formerly a harnessmaker at St. Germain de Grantham, and for a short time kept a general store in Drummondville, but moved to Shawinigan Falls a year ago. Being inexperienced and having only medium natural ability, his failure, now reported, does not create wonderment.—H. Gilbert, of Chicoutimi, Que., was fairly prosperous at his trade as blacksmith, but being partially burned out 15 months ago, he looked around for an easier way of making money, and obtained a shop license to sell liquors. His experience as a storekeeper has been a brief one; his assignment being now reported, and his assets will be sold.—A. J. Dionne, in a small shop way at St. Guillaume, Que., has assigned. He had been in business at St. Guillaume a year, and was previously located at River David and St. Elizabeth for short periods.
