Mercantile Summary.

SEVERAL English black-glass blowers have left Montreal for the old country, having been thrown out of work.

THE defective flue is the underwriters' sworn enemy.—Philadelphia Press. So it is of the householder who is not insured.

WORD comes of the failure, in St. John, N. B., of P. & H. A. McCullough, one of the oldest dry goods firms in that city.

FROM the annual report of the Harbor Commissioners of Owen Sound, we learn that the number of vessels arriving at that port in 1887 was 521 of 259,345 tons.

UNITED States grocers have decided to hold a pure Food Exhibition in Albany, early in the coming summer. Upwards of two hundred and seventy applications for space have already been received.

"MILLIONAIRES' woes. Pestering people with well filled purses," is the heading to an article in the Philadelphia Record. Not having had time to read it, we merely remark that we shouldn't feel at all "pestered" with a well filled purse.

THE Bark Peacemaker Company is the name of a new concern to which has been granted letters patent at St. John, N. B. It has been organized for the purpose of building, buying, owning, repairing, sailing, selling, sailing vessels, and shares therein, and cargoes "on ship account." Capital $24,000.

THREE months ago, relates a St. Thomas paper, B. H. Unger removed to that city from Alvinston. To-day his dry goods store is closed, he having found it necessary to make an assignment to a Hamilton house. Although Mr. Unger lost considerable money as a broker at Berlin, where he did business in that capacity for five years, the present is his first embarrassment in a career of 46 years. The assets and liabilities are nominally the same.
