Mercantile Summary.

BILODEAU & LAMONTAGNE, the Quebec firm of curriers reported by us last week as suspended, are trying to arrange a compromise at 25 cents on the dollar.

THE Thomas McDonald Manufacturing Company, of Montreal, manufacturers of stamped tinware, etc., have assigned upon demand. Liabilities are $14,700.

From Kingston, Ont., we learn of the assignment of George Carruthers, grocer, who has been the target for a number of suits lately. He failed before, seven or eight years ago, and compromised at 30 cents.—D. A. Waddell, of the same city, a harnessmaker, is in difficulties, and reported to be seeking a compromise.

E. LANTALUM, a merchant, of St. John, N.B., doing a considerable business, and having several branches in different parts of the country, has assigned. He was also a vessel owner and salesman, and had hitherto enjoyed good financial standing.—Reverdy Steeves, formerly a school teacher, and who started in the retail shoe business, in St. John, three or four years ago, has suspended payment. No figures of liabilities can yet be given.

Mercantile Summary.

An extensive retail furniture dealer of Montreal, H. P. Labelle, who has recently become much expanded through building a large factory, finds himself so tied up that he has had to suspend, and a meeting of creditors has been called. His liabilities in all will total some $55,000 to $60,000, and a considerable surplus is shown.

THE Macfarlane Milling Co. of Sherbrooke gives notice that it has sold to Juliana Hainault and L. E. Dastous the mill and entire business except the book debts. The new owners took possession of the property and business on the 7th May, and they state that the business will be continued under the name and style of the Macfarlane Milling Co.

No definite figures of liabilities can yet be given in the matter of Marsan & Brosseau, hay exporters, Montreal, whose suspension last week caused so much comment. A meeting of their creditors was held on Monday, but no statement was ready, and an adjournment was made until the 8th inst., three of the principal country creditors being appointed trustees in the meantime. It is probable the total liabilities will reach $150,000 if not $200,000.

Mercantile Summary.

The firms of Thos. B. Greening & Co., of Hamilton, and Greening, Balfour & Co., of Winnipeg, give notice that they intend concentrating their interests in Hamilton under the name of Greening, Balfour & Co., Hamilton. They say that "Motives of economy in the interest of our customers and ourselves make this change desirable," but they acknowledge a liberal and pleasant business from Winnipeg, and hope for its continuation.

Minor recent business casualties in the Province of Quebec are as follows: J. Cahill, a peddler in the parish of St. Anaclet, in the lower St. Lawrence, who got an extension of time last July, is now seeking a compromise at 25 cents on the dollar.—A meeting of the creditors of A. W. Lafleur, general dealer, St. Antoine de Tilly, was called on the 4th inst.—H. Charlebois & Co., shoes, Hull, who were reported as seeking a compromise, have apparently failed in their efforts; an assignment is now reported.—J. Paquette & Fils, contractors at St. Henri de Montreal, have assigned. Liabilities $4,861.—T. Paradis, a sawmill man of Levis, already reported as failed in these columns, is offering ten cents in the dollar.
