

Canada fully supports the plan of action. Canada participated in an Experts' Group which developed the plan. The group was made up of 12 individuals from member countries, international organizations and non-governmental organizations.