

expertise between experts, through seminars and workshops. In June 1995 Canada, through Canadian Heritage, hosted the Annual Conference of the International Council on Museums, at which a session on Mexican museology was featured.