Orders of the Day being called,

With leave of the Senate,

Item number three of the Orders of the Day was then taken up.

Whereupon the Senate proceeded to the consideration of the Report of the Committee of Selection appointed to nominate Senators to serve on the several Standing Committees for the present session.

It was moved: That the said Report be now adopted.

In amendment, on motion, it was Ordered: That the name of the Honourable Mr. David be substituted for that of the Honourable Mr. Godbout on the Standing Committee on Miscellaneous Private Bills and that the said Report be amended accordingly.

The said Report, as amended, was concurred in.

With leave of the Senate,

On motion of the Honourable Sir James Loughheed, it was Ordered: That the Senators mentioned in the Report of the Committee of Selection as having been chosen to serve on the several Standing Committees during the present Session, be and they are hereby appointed to form part of and constitute the several Committees with which their respective names appear in said Report, to inquire into and report upon such matters as may be referred to them from time to time; and that the Committee on Standing Orders is authorized to send for persons, papers and records whenever required; and also that the Committee on Internal Economy and Contingent Accounts have power, without special reference by the House, to consider any matter affecting the Internal Economy of the Senate, as to which His Honour the Speaker is not called upon to act by The Civil Service Act, and such Committee shall report the result of such consideration to the House for action.
