

Premier McKenna has asked for some assurances that there is support for his Companion Resolution.

16. Your Committee recommends the House of Commons should provide assurance of support for a Companion Resolution at an appropriate time.

However, this may be academic unless New Brunswick is satisfied and the provinces of Manitoba and Newfoundland and Labrador address their concerns by adding to the New Brunswick Companion Resolution or by proposing their own Companion Resolutions.