

ADMIRAL FARRAGUT'S REMARKABLE CRUISE.

Messrs. G. P. PUTNAM & SON

Are entrusted with the publication of a work of NATIONAL and HISTORICAL INTEREST, entitled,

OUR ADMIRAL'S FLAG ABROAD;

The Cruise of the U. S. Flagship Franklin,

ADMIRAL D. G. FARRAGUT,

In 1867-8,

By JAMES EGLINTON MONTGOMERY,

Of the Admiral's Staff.

ILLUSTRATED with Drawings by THOS. NAST and GRANVILLE PERKINS, from sketches by Lieut.-Commander HOFF, and PARK BENJAMIN, JR., of the U. S. Ship Franklin, engraved in the best manner and printed in TINTS. IN ONE VOLUME, LARGE OCTAVO.

The historical significance and the unique circumstances connected with this extraordinary cruise will be recognized by every intelligent observer. The interest awakened in regard to it on both sides of the Atlantic is indicated by the urgent calls from official personages abroad, and from every part of the U. S., for an authentic account of it in a handsome and appropriate shape. This demand it is now proposed to meet. The volume is prepared by Mr. MONTGOMERY, the Private Secretary of the Admiral.

The first (limited) edition of this work, for Subscribers, is intended to be specially attractive in its mechanical execution. It will have about forty fine Illustrations of

NOTABLE SCENES IN THE ADMIRAL'S RECEPTION, BY THE GOVERNMENTS OF EUROPE.

It will be printed on superior toned paper, in a book about the size of the Artist's Edition of Irving's Sketch-Book.

The price of this edition, to Subscribers only, will be $7 in cloth, or $12 in morocco extra, payable on delivery. The number printed in this style will be limited, according to the orders actually received before it is put to press.

Those who desire one or more copies of it, will please sign the annexed order, and return it at once to G. P. PUTNAM & SON, 661 BROADWAY.

If any copies remain over, the price of them will be increased to non-subscribers.

It is expected that the volume will be ready before the 15th April
