

- Whiskey, in Western New-York, price of, in 1799, 1149; distilled there in large quantities in 1804, 1184.
- Whitehead, Daniel, ordered arrested, 70, 283.
- Whitestown in 1792, 1106; population of, 1106; road to, in 1792, 1131.
- Willet, Col. Thomas, ordered arrested, 70, 263; Sec'y Clarkson desires him to bring in aid against Leisler, 332.
- William and Mary, Leisler's declaration in favor of, 4; proclaimed in Albany, 7; Leisler's order to proclaim, 60; petition of Leisler's son to, 422.
- Williamsburgh, 1107; a road made from Lycoming creek to, 1133.
- Williamson, Col., a description of the settlement of the Genesee country by, 1127; some particulars of, 1168.
- Winthrop, John, Major-General, Leisler's letter to, 190; proposed by Connecticut as commander-in-chief of the expedition against Canada, 253; agreed to by Leisler, 265; terms entered into between Leisler's commissioners at Albany and, 278; commission appointing, commander-in-chief of the expedition against the French, 281; the want of canoes at
- Wood creek complained of by, 284; is put under arrest by Leisler at Albany and sent to New-York, 288; Sec'y Aitlyn's defence of, 289; Leisler justifies his proceedings against, 300; accused of inefficiency, adultery, &c., 301; served in the Duke of York's guards, 302; is accompanied to Albany by Livingston, ib.
- Women, Cherokee, speech of the, to the women of the Six Nations, 767.
- Woodward, Timothy, proposes to propagate the gospel among the Indians, 627.
- Wraxall, Capt. Peter, appointed sec'y to the provincial congress at Albany, 563; sworn, 564; recommended for the office of secretary of Indian affairs, 647; aid-de-camp to General Johnson at the battle of Lake George, 697; Miss Miller's letter to, 761; letters to Sir Wm. Johnson from, 785, 787; his opinion of the value of the British possessions in the East Indies, 788; death of, 793.
- Writs for the election of new members of assembly, in Leisler's time, for Queens county, 282; for New-York, 283; for Westchester and for Albany, ib.