

rewarded ; nor does he favour any recommendation, without the person recommended really deserves his promotion. You will return your companies to me as soon as complete.

Your obedient humble servant,

New York,
Feb. 26, 1759.

R. Townshend."

To Major Rogers.

" SIR, New York, Feb. 13, 1759:

" This will be delivered to you by Capt. Jacob Nawnawampeteoonk, who last campaign commanded a company of Stockbridge Indians, and who, upon hearing that you had wrote to me concerning him, came to offer me his service for the ensuing campaign: But as you have not mentioned to me the terms and conditions on which he was to engage, I have referred him to you to give in his propofals, that you may report to me thereupon, and inform me if you think his service adequate to them ; after which I shall give you my answer. I am, Sir,

Your very humble servant,

Jeff. Amberst."

To Major Rogers:

Be-