

❖ Knox College ❖

TORONTO.

Staff of Instructors.

REV. W. CAVEN, D.D., Principal and Professor of Exegetics and Biblical Criticism.

REV. W. GREGG, D.D., Professor of Apologetics and Church History.

REV. W. McLAREN, D.D., Professor of Systematic Theology.

REV. R. Y. THOMSON, M.A., B.D., Professor of Apologetics and O. T. Literature.

REV. J. J. A. PROUDFOOT, D.D., Lecturer in Homiletics and Pastoral Theology.

DR. MCCURDY, Professor of Oriental Languages (University College).

Elocution is taught by PROFS. NEFF and BECHTELL.

INSTRUCTION IN CLASSICS AND MATHEMATICS IS GIVEN TO STUDENTS IN THE PREPARATORY COURSE.

Course of Study, Scholarships, Etc.

The course extends over three sessions of six months each. About twenty Scholarships, from $40 to $80 each, are offered for competition each Session. For Students who take a full University Course, there are Scholarships open for competition at the beginning of each Session. Students desirous of competing for these should intimate their intention to REV. W. G. WALLACE, M.A., B.D., TORONTO, before 8th September. These Scholarships are distinct from those given by the University of Toronto.

The Session opens on the first Wednesday of October, and closes on the Thursday after the first Wednesday of April.

College Residence.

In the College building there is accommodation for nearly eighty Students. The building is heated with steam, and the rooms commodious and comfortable. Board is $3.00 per week. There are reading rooms connected with the library, to which the Students have access.

All necessary information may be obtained from REV. PRINCIPAL CAVEN, TORONTO.