

stances, is not so extensive as could be wished, but it will be found to contain some very interesting species.

It is remarkable that no Oak, White Ash, Basswood, Soft Maple, Beech, Butternut, and Hemlock Fir, were observed in this district.

W. S. M. D'URBAN

Montreal, 14th May, 1859.