

|                                                                            |        |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| Arsenal—Navy Yard—Georgetown—Ohio Canal—Falls of the Potomac . . . . . | 97—110 |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|

CHAP. VIII.

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |         |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| Leave Washington—Musical German—Miserable Night—Blue Ridge—Winchester—Harper's Ferry—Manu-factories of Arms—Descend the Potomac—Point ofRocks—Restless Night—Mississippi Captain—Rail-way—Cholera—Arrive at New-York . . . . . | 111—127 |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|

CHAP. IX.

|                                                                                                                                                                                                          |         |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| Day of Festivities—Description of City—Academy ofFine Arts—Niblo's Gardens—Witty Auctioneer—Churches—Negro Dandies—Yankee Story—Justice ofthe Peace—Sam Patch's Leap—Deserted City . . . . . | 128—147 |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|

CHAP. X.

|                                                                                   |         |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| Mrs. Trollope—Captain Hall—Brother Jonathan's anger—Correct English . . . . . | 148—155 |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|

CAAP. XI.

|                                                                                                                                                                  |         |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| Leave New-York—Hell-gate—New-Haven—IndignantLady—Regicide Judges—Yankee Nonchalance—Defi-nition of "Yankee"—Hartford—Archers—Fire—Churches . . . . . | 156—164 |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|

CHAP. XII.

|                                                                                                                                                      |         |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| Leave Hartford—Providence—College—King Philip—Not permitted to enter Newport—Stage-coach Con-versation—Yankee Wit—Arrive at Boston . . . . . | 165—179 |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|

CHAP. XIII.

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |         |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| Description of Boston—Washington's Statue—Museum—Faneuil Hall—Navy Yard—Bunker's Hill—HarvardCollege—Mill-dam—Franklin—Leave Boston—Colo-nel Goffe—Beautiful town—Ascend Mount HolyokeWell-trained Horse—upset in the Coach . . . . . | 180—194 |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|

CHAP. XIV.

|                                                                                                                                                                                             |         |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| Lebanon Springs—Shakers—Lecture—Mother Ann—Black Fiddlers—Troy—Schenectady College—ErieCanal—Driver thrown into the Canal—Falls of theMohawk—In search of the Sublime . . . . . | 195—209 |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|

CHAP. XV.

|                                                                                                                                                                                                 |         |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| Inquisitive Pot-house Keeper—Falls of Tren'on—Shakingin a Dearborn—Whitesborough Institution—Clergy-man's Salary—Sunday Schools—Tuscarora Indians—Mail Bags—Names of Towns. . . . . | 210—222 |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|