ROADS.

The Province of New Brunswick is well supplied with roads. These roads are divided into two classes, great roads and bye-roads. The great roads being the great lines of communication, while the bye-roads are such as exist between the settlements and connect with the great roads. There are about 1500 miles of great roads in the province and probably three or four times as many miles of bye-roads. The great roads are directly under the management of the Board of Works and are kept up by means of supervisors appointed for the purpose. The Province of New Brunswick expends
