

Life and Opportunity in British Columbia.

EDGEWOOD.

Situation.

Edgewood is situated on the Lower Arrow Lake, in the famous fruit growing area of the Kootenay District of British Columbia, about 50 miles in direct line N.W. of the City of Nelson—the legal and commercial Capital of the Interior and fourth City of the Province. The climatic conditions on the Arrow Lakes are generally acknowledged to be superior to those ruling in any other part of British Columbia.

KOOTENAY.

Agricultural openings.

The Kootenay District of British Columbia is now world-famed for its fruit, and Edgewood in the Kootenay, is to-day almost unexcelled as a field for farming enterprise—Fruit Growing, Dairy Farming and Poultry.

Let us now sift the evidence which justifies this statement.
