

The Board of Arbitrators so chosen shall be established by the Minister under his hand and seal of office.

6. If any member of said committee or board shall die, refuse, neglect or become incapable to act, then whenever the same shall happen a successor shall be appointed in like manner as is above provided in respect of the original member of committee or board. Before such appointment the name of the person proposed to be appointed shall be submitted to both parties to the difference and there shall be afforded to each of them an opportunity not exceeding 10 days of making known to the appointing authority whether such proposed appointee is objected to, it being intended that it shall be endeavored to appoint only such person as shall not be reasonably objected to by either party.
7. In the event of the establishment of a committee of conciliation, mediation and investigation, or of a board of arbitrators to deal with any differences between the Government of Canada in respect of the Intercolonial Railway and any of its employees, the power to appoint conciliators or arbitrators which otherwise in accordance with the foregoing provisions might be exercisable by the Minister shall be exercisable either by the Lieutenant Governor in Council of the Province of Quebec, of New Brunswick, of Nova Scotia, or of Prince Edward Island (in this Act called the Lieutenant Governor in Council), as the Minister shall for that purpose in each case of conciliation or arbitration in writing name.
8. The third member of the said committee or board shall be the chairman.
9. In case of arbitration pursuant to the provision hereinbefore contained the findings and recommendations of the majority shall be those of the Board. In case of the absence of any one arbitrator from a meeting of the Board the other two arbitrators shall not proceed unless it be shown that the third arbitrator has been notified of the meeting in ample time to admit of his attendance.
10. Forthwith after the appointment of the Board the chairman shall promptly convene the same, and the Board shall in such manner as it thinks advisable make thorough, careful and expeditious enquiry into all the facts and circumstances connected with the difference and the cause thereof and shall consider what would be reasonable and proper to be done by both or either of the parties with a view to putting an end to the difference, and to preventing its recurrence and shall with all reasonable speed make to the Minister a written Report setting forth the various proceedings and steps taken by the Board for the purpose of fully and correctly ascertaining all the facts and circumstances, and also setting forth said facts and circumstances, and its findings therefrom including the cause of the difference and the Board's recommendations with a view to its removal, and the prevention of its recurrence.
