

provements, such as grading, sowing, curbing, guttering, paving, sidewalks, etc., which should be charged to the account to which the property affected was charged.)

17. INTEREST AND COMMISSIONS

To this account should be charged cash commissions and the actual cash value of other commissions on securities sold; interest, cash commissions, and the actual cash value of the other commissions on loans effected and on notes issued for money borrowed for construction purposes or for purchase of equipment; interest on overdue payments to contractors or other creditors; and interest, cash commissions, and the actual cash value of other commissions and exchange on other commercial paper issued for similar purposes. Interest on bonds and other securities, including equipment bonds or car trust notes, paid or accrued during construction and before line is open for operation, is chargeable to this account. To this account should be credited all interest received on moneys acquired for purposes of purchase or construction of road or equipment.

18. OTHER EXPENDITURES.

To this account should be charged organization expenses, including the payment of all necessary fees; the cost of printing certificates of stock and bonds, with payments to trustees and expenses incurred in the disposal of securities; salaries and expenses of executive and general officers of a road under construction; clerks in general offices engaged in construction accounts of work; rent and repair of general offices when rented, with the furniture and office expenses; also all items of a special and incidental nature which cannot properly be charged to any other account in this classification.

J. L. PAYNE,
Comptroller of Statistics