ARMENIERS LOST TO ENEMY ATTACK

British Withdraw From Heap of Ruins Filled With Gas.

London, April 11.—The British have withdrawn from Armenieres, on the northern battlefield, the war office announces. Violent fighting continues all along the front from La Bassee Canal to the Ypres-Comines Canal. The statement follows: "The battle is continuing on the whole front from La Bassee Canal to Ypres-Comines Canal. "Severe fighting has taken place in the neighborhood of the Lawe and Los Canals, from about Lestrem to Armenieres. Our troops have been withdrawn from Armenieres, which is full of gas. Heavy fighting was continuing at a late hour last night in the neighborhood of Floegsteert, Messines and Wytschaete. "On the remainder of the British front there is nothing to report."

AUSTRIANS CONTINUE PEACE PROPAGANDA

London, April 11.—Negotiations regarding the possibility of peace between the United States and Austria-Hungary have been carried on, between Prof. Anderson of Washington and Count Stephen Tiza and Count Jukus Andraszy, former Hungarian premiers, according to a Vienna despatch to The Berlin Tageblatt. The despatch also says the Austro-Hungarian foreign office admits various attempts have been made to obtain a general peace, and that Emperor Charles has had negotiations with several persons who have international connections. The Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, Count Czernin, has returned unexpectedly to Vienna from a visit to German headquarters, where he conferred with Emperor William. The despatch says the sudden return of the count caused a sensation in Austrian political circles. The stand taken by the Czechs against Count Czernin, the despatch continues, overshadows the controversy between the count and Premier Clemenceau of France. In Prague on Saturday a Czech meeting of protest against Count Czernin will be held.

THIS PRO-GERMAN HAS PRETTY STRONG STOMACH

Chicago, Ill., April 11.—A box of ground glass was taken from the clothing of Jacob Hendricks, former constable of Aurora, Ill., when he was brought here today. When Hendricks was arrested at Aurora, charged with promoting a lottery to aid German sailors interned at Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia, he swallowed some wood alcohol. It gave him a stomach ache but did not alarm the authorities. He was brought here to appear before Judge Landis.

RETURNED SOLDIER MAY LOSE BOTH HIS FEET

Chatham, April 11.—James Brown, a returned soldier, who enlisted in August, 1915 with a Winnipeg battalion, and who was later discharged as medically unfit, was placed in the public General Hospital of this city today with both feet badly frozen. Brown, who has had continual hard luck since his discharge, started out from Detroit some weeks ago for the south with a consignment of automobiles. He was improperly clad, and when he reached Cincinnati, was forced to go to the hospital where it was found his feet had been badly nipped by the severe weather of six weeks ago. He was able to get to Toledo and from there started to walk to Detroit, to report at the British mission in that city. He was taken across the border by men from the mission, and from there started to walk to London. Being without sufficient funds to take the train, at Tecumseh he was again forced to seek medical attention and was later put on the train which brought him to Chatham. Mayor Clements and the soldiers' aid commission have taken charge of the case which is so serious, that the attending doctors state they may have to amputate both feet. A fund is to be started.

FOR NAVAL DISCIPLINE.

HERTLING MAY RETIRE; CZERNIN TOTTERING

London, April 11.—The position of Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, is said to be much less secure since his recent speech and the publication of a French official statement that Emperor Charles considered the French demand for Alsace-Lorraine just, according to an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Copenhagen. There is growing dissatisfaction in Germany with Imperial Chancellor von Hertling and Foreign Secretary von Kuehlmann, and efforts are being made to replace von Hertling with Dr. von Helfferich, former vice-chancellor.

FORMER CHATHAM MAN DIES.

Chatham, April 11.—The death occurred suddenly on Tuesday of David H. Bedford, a former justice of the peace and real estate dealer of this city. He was a member of the city council for 12 years and took an active part in municipal enterprise. He died in Gibsonburg, Ohio, where he had gone to attend the funeral of his sister.

NO ORDER TO PREVENT SENDING IRISH NEWS

London, April 11.—Replying to a question in the house of commons by John Dillon, Nationalist, regarding the alleged refusal of the press bureau to give the correspondents of American newspapers information as to whether their messages had been stopped or altered, Sir George Cave, the home secretary, said that these messages were sometimes censored or stopped for sufficient reasons, but were never altered. Information was constantly given American correspondents regarding their messages, but the immense number of messages which passed through the bureau rendered it impossible to keep a complete record or to answer every enquiry. Mr. Dillon said his information was that all news about the Irish situation was being cut out. Sir George replied that he did not know about that, but he had given no general instructions regarding messages affecting the Irish question, and no other minister would give instructions to the press bureau.

GERMANS DRIVEN BACK BY COUNTER-ATTACKS

With the British Army in France and Belgium, April 11.—The fighting was continuing this morning north of Armenieres, with the British still holding Messines Ridge and Wytschaete, which yesterday changed hands several times. During the day the enemy succeeded in entering not only these positions, but La Creche, Nieppe and Hellebeke, Vigoroux counter-attacks forced the enemy from all these places. The Germans this morning were in possession of about half of the Village of Ploegsteert and Ploegsteert wood, on the Flanders battlefield, just to the north of Armenieres.

BIG BRITISH STEAMSHIP SUNK BY SUBMARINE

New York, April 11.—The big British steamship Minnetonka, 13,525 tons gross register, and formerly in the New York-London passenger trade for the Atlantic Transport Line, was sunk by a German submarine in the Mediterranean during February, the Maritime Register reports today. Officials of the International Mercantile Marine Company, owners of the vessel, said the Minnetonka has been engaged in the British admiralty service. The Minnetonka was one of four passenger ships of the line, aggregating 55,000 gross tons, all of which have been sunk since the war began.
