PUBLIC HEALTH Toronto's Medical Officer Addresses Chicago Audience on Modern Problems.

DR. HASTINGS ON

Dr. C. J. Hastings, medical health officer and president of the American Public Health Association, delivered notable address in Chicago last a notable address in Chicago last night before a large gathering of medical men and members of the association on the subject, "Public Health Administration and Demo-cracy." True democracy, he pointed out, was that brand which meant justice and liberty for all, and made possille for every citizen the develop and maintenance of a sound mind in a sound body. What our nations needed today, he stated, and what every individual was entitled to, was the development of the best, mental and physical, of which he was capable and no government was worth of being called a democracy that did not make this possible.

"In the United States and Canada." he stated, "less than one-half of one per cent. of the people own and con The mathematical properties of the trol nine-tenths of the entire wealth. It is estimated that this republic pos-
