GOBLIN LIQUOR IN STRIKE AREA

Government Acts Promptly to Assist in Keeping Order in Cobalt.

Hon. W. J. Hanna had a telegram from P. J. Finlan, mayor of Cobalt, and Foreland Reeves, chairman of the committee, yesterday, asking, on account of the strike, if the provincial secretary could prevent the express companies from carrying liquor to the station until the strike be settled.

HUNDREDS OF MINERS ARE LEAVING THE CAMP

Quiet Alone Indicates That Trouble is on—Labor Bureau Taking a Hand.

COBALT, July 9.—(Special.)—A few more men on the streets and a cessation of the blasting one is accustomed to hear from the hills on all sides of Cobalt town, are the chief indications at present of a strike in the camp.

Eleven hundred dollars' worth of tickets were sold yesterday at the T. & N. O. ticket office at Cobalt, and to-day's receipts will probably total a similar amount.

"I do not want to be called a scab and am therefore leaving camp," said this is what a first-class miner said to-day as he was leaving Cobalt.

It is reported that an emissary of the Canadian Copper Co. of Canada, to-day, and engaged one hundred men to go to work at Copper Cliff at higher wages than the union is asking here.

The Foster, McKinley-Darragh, Cobalt Central and Conlagas mines have their men at work, and the Tenish-kaming have over fifty men at work, but their neighbor, the Beaver, is closed down.

House, the labor organizer, addressed twenty-five hundred men in the square to-night.

Sleeping accommodations for the men have been provided in the top stories of the Hunter block at 15 cents for a bed.

Twenty-five men came in this afternoon to work for the O'Brien mine, but were got by the union and joined the strikers.

Mr. Acland, secretary of the L. F. A. Acland, secretary of the labor department, left Ottawa for Cobalt at noon to-day to explain to the striking miners there the provisions of the Lemieux Act.

The miners are evidently under the impression that the act applies only to coal mines and not to silver and other metalliferous mines. The act, however, requires an investigation by a board of conciliation and investigation before a strike or lockout can take place in any mine.

Mr. Acland will endeavor to induce the miners now on strike to apply for a board and return to work pending its findings. The terms of the act make the men liable to imprisonment for striking before an inquiry is held.

Nothing unpleasant has occurred, nor is there any fear of a riot, and the government is expected to send an army of plain clothes men to look out for "blind pigs."

Chief Caldwell has all right-minded men behind him and the union leaders will give him support.

In plain English, the camp is just now absolutely tied up by the strike and many mines doubtless are not sorry Advantage of it will be taken to install machinery. Some surface prospecting will also be done. Ore now sacked may be shipped, but the strike will hurt the camp if permitted to go on.

KILLED BY FALL IN HOIST SHAFT

Harley Montgomery, Aged 18, Fatally Injured Working at Alexandra Palace.

Harley Montgomery, 18 years, an electrician's helper for Bennett & Wright, fell to his death from the seventh story of the Alexandra apartment, University-avenue, at noon yesterday.

Montgomery had gone up on a freight hoist at the rear of the building, and is believed to have stepped out at the seventh floor and attempted to stop the elevator by grasping the cable beneath it and that either he reversed it or it being self reversible came back upon him and hurled him down the shaft, a distance of some 80 feet.

Montgomery's left hand was terribly burned as if in an endeavor to grasp the slipping cable. One foot was torn and broken. He was terribly bruised, and the skull may be fractured at the base.

The body was discovered at the foot of the shaft by the engineer of the building, who heard it fall and had barely time to drag it out to prevent it from being crushed beneath the heavy hoist, which was rapidly descending upon the insensible lad.

Dr. W. A. Young was hastily summoned and rode with the lad in the ambulance to Grace Hospital, where he was hurried to the operating table. There he went into a convulsion and after an operation was rapidly down, dying a little over an hour after his admission.

Cornel Young was appointed to investigate the case and ordered the fatal hoist to be locked up until viewed by the juror, who will convene at Grace Hospital at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The lad is the son of Albert E. Montgomery, a commercial traveler who was in Cobalt yesterday, but had been notified of the tragedy. His mother was with him when he died.

Montgomery had only been employed by the Bennett & Wright firm for two weeks, and his name was not upon their books.

IN A GOOD CAUSE.

Did you know there was a place over on Broadview-avenue—No. 275—where 600 or 600 boys are given an opportunity to do all the things manly, active, healthy and good-hearted boys want to do, and are saved the temptations of the street and the slum after school and office hours?

It has turned out scholars and artists and artificers from its winter classes, athletes from its playgrounds, farmers and gardeners from its culture-plots, and young men of fine character generally as the result of a system which combines all that is best in Arnold and Hughes of Rugby, and the best traditions of Canada.

The World is trying to interest boy-loving citizens in the project, and to raise $1500 towards the payment for the five and one-half acres of property. Make cheques payable to the Stirling Bank.

BOY DROWNED NO ONE CARES

No Attempt to Search For Body Until Thirty Hours After Fatality Occurred.

Playing with a companion, Albert Smith, a colored boy of 22 Bulwer-street, on a log in the bay at the foot of John-street on Monday at noon, little Ernest Scott, aged 10, only son of Mrs. Margaret Scott of 27 Bulwer-street, mysteriously got into the water and was drowned.

The body was recovered late last night by Acting Detective Moffat at the spot pointed out by the Smith boy, fully 24 hours, it is alleged, after the police were first notified of the occurrence.

In fact, no effort was made by the officials at No. 3 station to look for the boy, who had been reported missing Monday night, the reason given being that he had been lost before. It is the proceeding in such cases to report missing children to headquarters. This was not done.

A. Creighton, janitor of Phoebe-street school, informed the World that he had heard Mrs. Scott report to the policeman on the beat Monday evening that Ernest was missing, and that she thought he was drowned.

"No effort was made," he said, "to look for the boy, and I went down to No. 1 police station to-night and found that No. 3 station had not even reported the missing lad."

Until The World inquired of the police at No. 3 station last night, apparently no steps were taken to enquire into the case.

To the reporter Mrs. Scott stated that Albert Smith (his right name) was a colored boy, aged 15, had been leading her boy astray and keeping him out late at nights. She thought the Smith boy was not quite right in his mind and forbade her boy to go with him.

She had been sick for several days and Ernest had not been going with the Smith boy.

On Monday he asked his mother if he might go down to the wharf with Albert. He promised to be back at 1 o'clock sure and she let him go. When he did not return she went to enquire and a neighbor's boy informed her that Ernest was down at the foot of John-street with Woods.

Later in the day she called Woods and asked for her boy. The colored boy explained that Ernest had himself been on a log in the bay. He looked around and Ernest had disappeared; that was all he knew.

TWO PRISONERS "HIKE" FROM JAIL AT WHITBY

Guard's Attention Was Distracted and Captives Got an Hour's Start.

WHITBY, July 9.—(Special.)—Albert McKewen of Exbridge, and M. J. Ryan, who were serving long sentences in the county jail here, escaped this afternoon, and although the sheriff and county constables have searched the neighborhood, no trace of the getaways has been found.

McKewen is about 20 years of age, and has a record. He has broken jail before and is an adept at the job.

The prisoners were taken out in the jail yard to work. The turnkey left them for a little while, and both took advantage of his absence. They got an hour's start before the officers were after them.

ABSCONDER A LUNATIC? Plea That May Be Entered on Behalf of Runyan.

NEW YORK, July 9.—That a plea of insanity may be the defense of Chester B. Runyan, the paying teller of the Windsor Trust Company, who is charged with defaulting with $86,000 of the Trust Company's funds, was indicated by his counsel when Runyan was arraigned in court to-day.

On behalf of Runyan, his counsel entered a plea of not guilty of the charge of grand larceny, and asked for an adjournment until Monday. He said he had been informed that the prisoner's maternal grandfather had died in an insane asylum, and that Mrs. Runyan believed her husband's mind was affected.
