Mr. Godfrey has 'limited himself to writing only two patriotic songs this year. One is the already well-known "Greeting to the Big "Foxy Quiller" Sale.

The long-expected sale for the engagement of "Foxy Quiller" opened at the Grand Opera House yesterday, and was the most successful opening sale that has ever been experienced for a comic opera engagement at that theatre. Abtho the box office did not open until 10 a.m., the first man in the line arrived three hours before, and when Doorkeeper Nolan opened up there was a crowd of over one hundred people in the lobby. These buyers and those in the lobby quickly bought up all of the balcony seats for every performance, and made serious inroads on the plans of the night performances. Monday evening will see the Grand crowded to the doors, and the indications are that before the curtain rises on the first performance of "Foxy Quiller" the theatre those in the long and the serious indications are that before the curtain rises on the first performance of "Foxy Quiller" the theatre Big "Foxy Quiller" Sale. formance of "Foxy Quiller" the theatre will be "sold out" for every performance. The sale for the matinee on Good Friday was the heaviest, altho there were many buyers for the Saturday afternoon performance. It was announced that there would be no matinee on Wednesday. The sale opens again at 10 o'clock to-day.

No branch of this favorite store for men stands out more prominently in their appreciation than the custom tailoring branch. It gained a large number of friends ast fall and winter. It's seeking to widen still further that circle this season and it's holding loval each new friend it gains. Maybe our cutter and makers are a trifle more skilful than the ordinary-maybe they're a bit more attentive to your wishes and more careful in their work. As a matter of fact it's because of all these features combined, and we believe that nowhere else on this continent can you find strictly high-class tailoring at such very moderate cost.
