

Madame Coté and Miss McSween, workers in connection with the Presbyterian Woman's Missionary Society, received parcels of clothing for distribution among the deserving poor.

The Hervey Institute, the work of the Rev. Mr Bouchard, of Joliette, P.Q., and some poor families among the Jews in our city were also remembered.

Special subscriptions were solicited and received, under the auspices of this Society, for furnishing a room in the Y. W. C. A. Building, and for the work of the Industrial Rooms Bazaar Fund.

We have to acknowledge, with warm thanks, large parcels of new clothing from Mr. D. Morrice and Mrs. Redpath, as well as warm clothing sent in by members of the congregation. Much of this warm clothing, we have reason to know, has been a great boon to those to whom it was given.

Respectfully submitted,

SARAH J. McMASTER,

Secretary-Treasurer.
