FOR MISSIONS.

Rev. C. H. Kimball at Adelaide Street Rangist Church

In spite of the disagreeable weather, a good-sized audience gathered at the Adelaide Street Baptist Church last evening, to hear the address of Rev. C. H. Kimball, of Aylmer, given under C. H. Kimball, of Aylmer, given under tion against James McNorton, charg-the auspices of the Women's Mission ing him with assault. Circle, who took this means of securing a special "thank offering" for missionary purposes. The chair was occupied by Mrs. (Rev.) T. S. Johnson and the Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. G. F. Robinson. Rev. T. S.
Johnson fed in prayer, and a delightful solo was given by Miss E.
Hartson, after which the chairman introduced the speaker of the evening.

Mr. Kimbali's address was both interesting and instructive, his remarks being based on the words of Scripture:

"And this gospel of the kingdom shall be presched in all the kingdom shall be preached in all the world, for a witfact that being such a disagreeable night none would be there from idle curiosity, but all in the right spirit, searching for truth. He pleaded with each Christian and church member to do their duty as Christ's representatives unto all those who had no opportunity to hear the Gospel. Methods for destroying souls, he said, were being invented far faster than the methods of saving them. It had been calculated that a message could be sent from Queen Victoria's palace to every part of the British Empire in 75 days, and that had been used as a basis of colculation to ascertain the length of time it would take if every church did its duty to preach the Gospel to every nation, and it was stated that this might be done in 25 years. Rev. Mr. Kimball spoke of the 220,000 saloons in the United States, and said that as a means of wrecking souls they sunk into insignificance the pirates of the high seas. Five millions of the heathen, he added, had been converted in the nineteenth century, while the heathen world had increased 250,000,000 in the same time, a fact in itself sufficient to create increased effort among the churches. Following Rev. Mr. Kimball's address was a solo by Miss E. Johncharge of the offering that it amounted to $24 75. The meeting closed with the doxology, and prayer by Mr. H. Edwards,
