"BOARDING HOUSE FOR BABIES" TO OPEN IN CITY VERY SHORTLY

Matron Will Be Appointed by Those in Charge Next Week.

With the appointment of a matr "boarding-house for babies" in Londo will be well under way. The use of a house owned by the city at 824 King street has been granted, and the project has been taken up by a number of local women.

They have advertised for applications for a matron and a cook. Volunteer for a matron and a cook. Volunteer help will also be asked, in addition to these two permanent officials.

"Mrs. A. T. Edwards is one of those chiefly interested in the work. The need of such an establishment was brought to her attention in connection with her experience as a school trustee. It was found that many children were being kept home from school because their mothers had to work for a living and could not give them the necessary

IS ORDERED TO LEAVE HIS MOTHER'S HOME

Lawson McGuire appeared in pol court today for being disorderly in his mother's home and was warned by Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon to leave the house. The case was adjourned for two weeks, during which time, if any trouble occurs, the accused's mother will notify the police, in accordance with advice given her by the court.

When questioned by the magistrate the defendant stated that he had been working at one firm for the past eight months. He hesitated to reply when asked if he paid any board. His mother stated that he paid for his keep, but only once in a while. "You are apparently sponging on your mother," remarked the magistrate. "You will have to leave the house."

FOUR-MILE ICE JAM AT MOUTH OF THAMES: MUCH LAND FLOODED

Still Intact and Three Feet Thick.

Light and power circuits in Leondon were shut off completely for several minutes last night as the result of the main supply lines, which put the whole city in darkness for a brief space.

Citizens were at a loss to account for the complete shut-down. Telephone wires were almost burned out when hundreds of people attempted to get in touch with the hydro station to see what was the matter.
